Post And Rails Summer Camp

Post and Rails Summer Camp is an equestrian camp which can accommodate the true beginner as well as the more advanced rider. The camp for kids ages 9 and under will take place June 24 through June 28, and the camp for ages 10 and up will take place July 8 through July 12. Children may attend the full week, a few days per week, or half days, as fits the parents' schedule and budget. The day begins at 9 a.m. and ends at 4 p.m. Total cost for a week is $450, and concludes with a pizza party and a horse show to show parents what their children have learned.

One pleased parent writes, "Post and Rails Summer Camp offers an excellent opportunity for horse lovers. The training teaches kids the skills they need to succeed with horses. The most valuable aspect is that my girls came away with a true sense of the responsibility, and hard work that goes with horses -- and the confidence that comes with a successful horse camp week."

The camp is located at 10362 State Rt. 64 in Swanton, Ohio.
