Stone accents and a graceful porch welcome you home to this lovely house.

Who says a luxurious home has to be big? This thoughtful plan delivers a layout with space where you want it – the kitchen, great room, and master suite – without excess square footage. If you do need to expand later, the bonus room above the garage is handy. The main living spaces are bright and open, with the kitchen's snack counter providing room for casual meals and the graceful dining room – complete with columns – for special dinners. Relax in the master suite's big tub or shower, or kick back on the screen porch. Two additional bedrooms share a full bath on the right.
