This timeless design features a generous front porch for welcoming guests. Inside, an efficient floor plan is distinguished by elegant arches marking the transitions from room to room. The spacious island kitchen includes a built-in planning desk and a corner pantry. A sunny breakfast room accesses the back porch through French doors, as does the great room with a cozy hearth and built-in cabinetry. The master bedroom is separate from the two family bedrooms, which are located off a back hallway convenient to the laundry and garage. The guest bedroom near the front of the home would also make a great home office.
