The courtyard-style garage access to this plan gives an expansive look without detracting from the beautiful exterior. Inside, the open floor plan flows effortlessly out to both a covered porch and a screened porch, making it ideal for entertaining. The master suite offers a bright bay window, two walk-in closets, and a comfortable bath. The study can easily become a fourth bedroom with a private bath. Over the garage, a large bonus area with skylights can be finished for additional living space. Don't miss the kitchen's outstanding details: an e-space (great for keeping your phone at hand), a central island, and a sun tunnel to brighten the sink area.
