Incident Information: Today at two o'clock pm (2:00pm) Mr. Probst (suspect) entered the library making loud and disruptive noises. I was posted in pop teen when I heard the suspect. I went to the door desk to see where the noise was coming from. Officer Johnson informed me that the suspect was walking towards B.T.I. I pursued the suspect. When I made contact with the suspect Captain Ervin and Security Coordinator Sabo were walking the suspect to the front doors. I continued to walk with them until the suspect exited the building. While exiting the building the suspect was using profane language "I will beat your ass we can go to the parking lot and I'll smash your head into a fucking glass window". Around 3:45 p.m suspect returned to the library and asked if he could take a paper to the G.E.D. class. I informed the suspect that he could not return to any Toledo Lucas County Public Library for six months (6 months). Suspect then asked if I could give his paper to the G.E.D. class. I refused and the suspect exited the building. Officer Thompson witnessed the suspect handing the paper to a patron outside, the patron took the paper, balled it up, and threw it on the ground. The suspect then punched the patron in the chest. Officer Thompson then went outside, told the suspect to get down on the ground, and put his hands behind his back. When I got on scene Officer Thompson then put hand cuffs on the suspect. Officer Thompson then asked me to call for unit sixty six (66) for an arrest. We took the suspect to the D.T. room to obtain the suspect's information. Asst. Chief Osuch and Security Coordinator Sabo witnessed the suspect in D.T. room. Officer Thompson informed the suspect that he could not return to Main Library until his ban is up. The patron that was assaulted refused to give any of his information.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was on duty when I noticed that there was a gentleman in the magazine sections sitting down and talking to himself. I went about my patrol when I was approached by Mrs. Hurtado who informed me that she thought that that same gentleman was banned for a year but she did not know his name. I called dispatch to inform them of the situation and they told me to approach him and ask him. I came up to the gentleman, later known as Mr. Patrick Timothy Richard, and asked him what his name was, he told me his name and then I asked him if he was banned. Mr. Richard became irate speaking very loudly telling me that he goes to the library all the time. He then ranted about how he was in the Million Man March and that it was people like me that caused it. I told him to leave the premises and escorted him out. While walking out Mr. Richard turned to Lupe Hurtado and said that she was from the Mexican Mafia. Through further investigation, I found out that Mr. Richard was banned on 11-11-2011 and is not to return until 11-12-2012.

Incident Information: I was alerted by Sue Pohlman (clerk) that Jessica was opening a stack of adult videos. When she was questioned she became argumentative and stated that they were children's videos and thought they could be checked out. When Sue said you need to be over 17 she stated that she would be using her sisters card. Sue explained that her sister has over $50 in fines. Sue had taken the videos from her.

The staff said Jessica is constantly in the adult video area. She is a regular patron that is aware of the rules for checking out videos.

This appears to be an attempted theft. I intend on calling her sister Jeniffer Smithers to make her aware of the fines on her card. According to Jennifer she was unaware that her sister was using her card for videos Incident Information: While on patrol in Wintergarden, I overheard patron Anthony Grant repeatedly making death threats to someone whom he was speaking with on a cell phone. I notified Assistant Chief Osuch of this occurrence. I brought Mr. Grant to detainment for clarification as to why he was making such threats. Mr. Grant wouldn't give any information as to whom he was threatening or why. I notified TPD Officer Evans. Officer Evans checked to see if Mr. Grant had any current warrants. Mr. Grant did in warrants in the city of Toledo. The warrants however were summonsable offenses, so Officer Evans gave Mr. Grant an appropriate court date for his offenses. Mr. Grant was told to leave property for the rest of the day. Mr. Grant left without further incident.

Incident Information: On 1/17/12 at approximately 1305 hours I was approached by the victim who came into the library. The victim advised she was just robbed outside, in front of the building. I called dispatch and notified them of the situation and for them to call TPD for a report. Areill advises that a male subject, who was sitting at computer #3 had asked her if the gold neckless she was wearing was for sale. Areill advised the male subject that the neckless was not for sale since it was her uncle's. Areill's uncle's name is Jeson Phillips. Areill advised that she had walked home to Walker St. since her wait for the computer was over an hour. Areill came back to the library a few minutes before 1300 hours and was smoking a cigarette outside the front doors. She advised that she was smoking near the handicap parking area. Areill advised that the male subject had left the library and got into the back seat of a newer Dodge Avenger gray in color. The car then pulled up in front of the victim. The passenger asked Areill to come to the car. When Areill got to the front passenger side door of the vehicle, the passenger grabbed the neckless around the victim and pulled it off of her. Areill advised she tried to grab the neckless back but was pushed down by the suspect. The vehicle took off east out of the parking lot and then turned left onto Willys Parkway heading north. The witness, Douglas Kemp, advised that the suspect was wearing a red hoodie sweatshirt. The suspect is a white male with possible facial piercings and was possibly in his mid 20's. TPD officers and Det. J.S. Clark came to the library and took a report from the victim. I advised TPD that the male subject was sitting at computer #3 and that I maybe able to get his information from them. Pictures from security cameras will be added to this report and passed onto TPD. At approximately 1600 hours Jeff Sabo contacted me and gave me the card information for the male subject who was with the suspect. Areill's cars # is 5000085518. Douglas's card # is 5000048336. Male subject name is Michael Andrew Lesinszki, card # DMX9D.

Incident Information: On date mentioned above at about 1000 hours, I was patrolling when J. Bonds asked me for a piece of paper. I told him that he was banned. He said that he hadn't received the ban letter yet. I explained to him again the process when someone is banned. He said that his family was here and he was going to take a G.E.D. class with them at this location. The general manager was standing next to me and she heard the whole conversations. She answered him that he cannot take his class at any TLCP-Library in the system, but she was going to look up other sites where he can go. J. Bonds asked me if he could wait for his wife in the car and I answered him that only this time. I followed him to the meeting room, so he could ask his wife for the car keys. While waiting for his wife, J. Bonds was polite and he understood the consequences from his past actions. He waited for his wife in the car for about two hours with no further incidents. Later in the day at about 1630 hours, J. Bonds' wife called the general manager to ask why her husband was having trouble with the library and if she could pick-up the ban letter at this branch. The general manager told her that she could pick up the ban letter at the mail library or the post officer tomorrow since she did not receive the certified mail slip.

Incident Information: I received a phone call on 1/25 from Sherri DeVaughn concerning her son, Joshua Mallery. She recently discovered a stash of library CD's and after questioning him, Mallery admitted to stealing them from the Point Place Branch Library. She was very concerned and wanted to send him down right away to return the stolen material and to receive the consequences for his actions. However, Point Place Branch was closed for renovations (Jan 23-27) I, Jessica Luce, along with his mother, Sheri Devaughn, requested a deputy sheriff or an armed security meet with Mallery and explain the severity of his actions. The mother is taking this matter very seriously and wants to teach her son a lesson. On Saturday 1/28 Officer Matt? from Main Library security met with Mallery. Together we set up punishment of writing a letter of apology to the Library for stealing. If the act was completed a lesser ban would be given. However, as of today 2/2 we have not received the letter which was given a 24 hour deadline.

Incident Information: On time and date mentioned above, I was patrolling when I saw B. Willis standing by the self-checkout computers. I saw him opening a DVD case and looking inside. Then he walked towards the DVD shelf and left the case on top of the shelf. B. Willis started walking around the children's area. I picked up the case and I found that the DVD disc was missing. I walked towards B. Willis and asked for consent to search him since I observed him opening the DVD and walking away with it. B. Willis agreed to search him, but I did not find anything on him. I asked him if he took the DVD disc out of the case and he said no. I asked him why he had an empty DVD case and put it on the top of the shelf. He said he saw the DVD case laying on the self-checkout table and picked it up to see it. The DVD disc was not inside, so he just decided to put it back on top of the shelf. I asked him why he did not inform the staff members. He answered that he just did not think about it. I informed the staff members about the incident. I called dispatch to review the cameras.

Incident Information: On January 27th 2012 while on patrol I witnessed Mr. Melvin McClain and Mr. Marshawnn Murphy standing on the cement wall which leads to the front doors. As I approached the two males I noticed Branch Manager Jane Thoma having a conversation with the two individuals. As I approached the conversation I heard Marshawnn Murphy saying the following to Mrs. Thoma, "Bitch don't interrupt us when we are talking. Who the fuck are you to interrupt our conversation? We are two grown ass men talking. We aren't fuckin' bothering anyone in the library. Mind your own fuckin' business bitch." As both myself and Mrs. Thoma tried to explain as to why Mr. Murphy could not use such language he once again told Mrs. Thoma to "Mind her fucking business," as he left property with Mr. Melvin McClain who had also been previously warned for standing on the cement wall just fifteen (15) minutes prior to this incident.

Updating incident from January 31st with Officer Fane. While on duty, Ofc. Fane reported on his daily activity log that Marshawnn Murphy and Melvin McClain were involved in spray painting the men's restroom. According to Officer Fane the two men entered with a group of other patrons. As the group which included Marshawnn Murphy was entertaining themselves and distracting the staff, Mr. McClain left the group and entered the restroom. Minutes later he emerged from the restroom, which is when Officer Fane entered the restroom and seen graffiti done in white spray paint or marker (see attached photograph) on the bathroom wall. Officer Fane reported that he had been in the restroom minutes prior to Mr. McClain entering and monitored the restroom before Mr. McClain entered. Officer Fane states Melvin McClain left property while he checked the restroom. Officer Fane then states Mr. McClain returned minutes later, which is when Officer Fane ordered him to empty his pockets. Officer Fane states he did not find anything which connected Melvin McClain to the graffiti other then witnessing him enter the restroom , and then finding the graffiti as soon as he left. Officer Fane notified dispatch of the group of individuals who entered with Mr. Murphy and Mr. McClain and requested a road patrol unit 66 be present to avoid any further incidents. Dispatch notified Officer Fane there was not a road patrol officer on duty. Chief Sabo, who at the time of the dispatch was en route home, but stopped for assistance for Officer Fane. As soon as Chief Sabo arrive the group of individuals which included Mr. Murphy and Mr. McClain left property with any further incident.

Incident Information: I noticed an older man speaking with victim (who is the sister of a volunteen who was working). I noticed victim looked uncomfortable and I asked her sister if she knew the gentleman. Sister said no so I advised her to get her sister and go to another place in the library. In the meanwhile while they were talking (suspect + victim) the victim texted her mom that an old man was talking to her and that he asked her to his home. She asked mom to come and get her. Apparently the suspect has been in the library before. He has approached other patrons, as well as staff members to talk and show picture of his travels. He says he is lonely and just wants to talk to people. The victim's mom also remember the same man approaching them at the park showing them pictures and inviting them all back to his home. Victims mom just wanted us to be aware of this gentleman because something just isn't right.

Gentleman returned 1/31/12 and approached shelve and asked if she wanted to go to his home. He left before officer arrived. We contacted security - Bill Ervin stopped advised to contact him when gentleman comes back.

Incident Information: Avery Mapes is a daily customer who attends school at the Alternate Learning Center on Wrenwood. ALC gets out very early in the day, and Avery usually spends a few hours at Washington branch after school. Today he was just very rowdy and noisy, running around the building inside and out even after many staff members repeatedly asked him not to. He was yelling and fighting with his friends, and finally he started grabbing their hands and twisting them back painfully. He did this to kid named Daniel Swain-Brown, to another kid names Sam, and also to a very small girl whom he know somehow. When this happened i asked him to leave fr the day. He refused to leave at first, and then left, but came back in several more times. I asked him to take a day off from coming to the Library and not to come back until Wednesday. We like Avery but he was much too rowdy and rude today. He was been wearing the exact same dirty shirt for about a week.

Incident Information: Daniel was at the library before noon waiting outside. When he came in at noon he said his mother dropped him off at the library because he was too sick to go to school. He was quiet for a while, but once his buddies from the Alternate Learning Center on Wrenwood got here after school (2:00 PM), Daniel started running around with them. They were all pushing each other around, arguing, and becoming a noise disturbance to other patrons, especially at the computer area. We finally sent them outside, where Daniel got into a fight with some other kids. One child named Sam came in to complain that Daniel was harassing him. Right after that, Daniel came in the branch sopping wet. Either somebody pushed him into the drainage ditch, or he fell in. His shoes, jeans, and his jacket up to his chest were all soaked through and trailing water. Right now it's 33 degrees outside. Daniel should not be at the library unsupervised. He seems to have a learning disability.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, while on patrol, I was met with a patron stating that a girl was yelling obscenities at her and being verbally abusive towards her. I asked the woman to show me who was responsible for it and she pointed to a girl, Ms. S'mony Latreace Frederickson. After realizing that she was in trouble she ran off the property and away from the area. A few minutes before this incident she was kicked out of the library for being disruptive and talking about fighting someone (not related to the library or any of the patrons therein), then coming back to the library. No further incidence happened. The incident was in violation of infraction 4 of the library code of conduct.

He stated he knew he was banned and was just wanting the bus schedule. I made it very clear to Mr. Randall if he steps onto Library property again he will be arrested. He left without further incident. I informed the manager that if Mr. Randall comes on Library property to notify security immediately and have him arrested.

Incident Information: On 1/31/12 at 1715 staff member Barb kicked out a group of kids for being disruptive and loud. Suspect (Mr. Price) was in the group that was told to leave for the day. Later in the evening Mr. Price along with another one of the kids who was kicked out re-entered the building. I informed both that they were not allowed in after staff kicked them out. At that point Mr. Price said "man we didn't get kicked out." Another staff member verified that they were kicked out. Both Mr. Price and his friend were told to leave now or a possible longer ban would be enforced. Mr. Price said he "didn't care and he would go to another branch." Mr. Price continued to be disruptive all the way out of the branch. Mr. Price was told to leave property but then decided to sit on the fence claiming it wasn't library property. Again Mr. Price was informed it was library property and to leave. Mr. Price did comply but five minutes later re-entered the library for a 2nd time. I informed Mr. Price it will now be a longer ban for just one day to which Mr. Price replied "dude I don't care how long it is, I will just go to some other branch." I informed him that his ban from Kent will ban him from all Toledo Lucas County Public Libraries. Mr. Price response was "dude whatever go where I want." After that Mr. Price left without further incident. Mr. Price's friend is still unknown but left after the first attempt to re-enter the library.

Incident Information: On Thursday afternoon (2/1/12), a child came to me and said that Jeremiah was calling his sister names and was "picking with them". A group of four children, including Jeremiah and his older brother Joseph, were gather around an Internet computer in the children's room. I looked around and didn't see Jordan, the security officer, so I went back to the children's room. I told all of them, including Joseph and Jeremiah, to leave the library because they were gathered around a computer and they had been told numerous times in the past that they could not do that. (Jeremiah had been asked to leave the week before for not listening after being told many times to stop standing behind the computers). Joseph stuck out his tongue and made a noise and I told them that they now couldn't come back until Monday. When they continued to complain and made no move to leave I told them that if they weren't out of the building within two minutes they would be out for two weeks. They left.

On Friday afternoon (2/2/12) Joseph came in and asked Elizabeth at the Circulation desk if she had found his hate and gloves. She told him she hadn't and she also told him that he couldn't be in the library until Monday. He said he needed to ask a friend something and she said that he couldn't do that because he had been asked to leave and couldn't come in for any reason until Monday. On his way out I heard Joseph say to himself, but loud enough for me to hear, "All right, now I'm gonna haver to tell my Momma and it's going down." I found the security officer, Jordan, and told him about Joseph's comment. I told him I didn't really think it was going to be a problem but wanted to give him a 'heads up' in case an irate mother came into the library. I also told Elizabeth.

At around 4:00PM, Joseph and Jeremiah's mother came into the library. She angrily began to speak to Ann, the circulation sub. Neither the Manager nor the Circulation Supervisor was working at the time so Ann told her that she would need to speak with me. I was going to tell her why her children had been asked to leave the library but that was not her concern. She came over to the Reference desk and very angrily said that I had been making her kids leave the library without letting them gather their things and I hadn't let them get their hat and gloves and they were lost now and I'd better make sure that when they leave the library they have their hat and gloves. I said that when we ask kids to leave we don't make them leave without their things and that I had nothing to do with their lost gloves and hate. She became angrier and said loudly and in a very threatening way that she has "decided to come down THIS time like a lady to tell me that they better have their hat and gloves next time they leave". I told her that she could speak to our manager Judy Jones if there was a problem but we don't do that (make kids leave without their things). This when on for a while until she left.

Judy Copeland, our Homework helper who works in the room behind the reference desk, came over shortly after the mother left to ask if I was alright. I told her I was but I wondered where the security officer had been through all of that. She told me that during the incident she'd walked over and told Jordan that he needed to move over by me.

I found Jordan and asked him if he'd heard "all that". He said he had, and I asked him where he'd been. He pointed in the direction of the New Books shelf. I told him that I didn't appreciate the mother speaking to me like that in such a threatening way and asked if he knew her name. He said he didn't but that her kids would be in next week and we could find out then when they got on the computer.

I then spoke to Elizabeth who was confused when I said that Ms. Copeland had asked Jordan to come stand by me during the incident. Elizabeth said that as soon as she'd heard the mother's angry conversation with Ann when she first came in, she'd gone back to get Jordan in the break room. She told Jordan that there was an irate mother talking to me and that he needed to get out to the desk by me right away. She also told Jordan to tell the mother that she'd looked thought the library the evening before, as she always does, and she had no found a hat and gloves. Elizabeth assumed that after he left the break room, he'd come over to the desk by me and that he'd also relayed her message.

I spoke with Ms. Copeland again and asked her where Jordan was when she told him he needed to come stand by me and she said that he'd been standing in the doorway of the workroom behind the circulation desk. When she walked across the library and behind the circulation desk to tell him that he needed to move over by he, he apparently moved near the new book section because he told me that's where he'd been during the incident. I hadn't seen him throughout the entire encounter.

Incident Information: I was helping Cindy, the GED instructor, make a copy at the copy machine when Joseph and Jeremiah's mother walked up to me. At first I didn't recognize her, but then she said that the hat and gloves had not turned up and that they needed to be replaced. I told her that we are not responsible for children's hat and gloves and she said that because I made her kids leave without their things I was responsible. She also said that she wanted to speak with the manager. I told her that was fine, that she wasn't in but she would be in either the next day or later in the week. She said again that it was my fault that the gloves and hat were missing and that I needed to pay her for them. I said no, but that she could certainly speak with the manager about it.
Elizabeth saw her come in and went back to the break room to get Jourdan, who was speaking with Bill Ervin. When they came out onto the floor, she was already on her way out.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was on patrol when staff member Connie Schmitz informed me that there was an alcoholic beverage in the women's bathroom. Upon further investigation I saw that there was, in fact, beer hidden in the trash bin under the trash bag, still cold and just opened. As I was exiting the bathroom, I noticed that the above suspect was exiting the library quite quickly. This incident coupled with prior incidents when there were alcoholic beverages in the women's bathroom immediately following Ms. Sheppard's arrival, brings this officer to have reasonable suspicion to believe that she is in fact the person who brings the alcohol on the property. This is in strict violation of infraction 3 of the library's code of conduct.

Incident Information: Dispatch informed me of a verbal altercation occurring at the door desk in central court. Upon arrival I was met by circulation clerk Vicki Avalos and the suspect Larry Butler. Mr. Butler was obviously upset as he was talking loudly about Vicki being in the way when he was exiting. I attempted to calm Mr. Butler down and asked him to come with me so I could talk to him. He agreed and was continuing to complain about Vicki being in the way. I gathered his information and told him that Vicki was doing her job and that she would not intentionally block his way out of the building. Mr. Butler then informed me that he was a professional boxer and that he wanted me to know that. He did not threaten me but was attempting to intimidate me. Mr. Butler continued to talk over me stating how important he was to the community and what not. I then told Mr. Butler that he was going to have to leave for the day and that the Library does not tolerate belligerent behavior towards staff members. He continued to talk and he left property without incident or injury.

Incident Information: On the above date and time I Officer Anderson and Lieutenant Gankosky was patrolling the North side of the Library and observed 5 individuals sitting on a bench smoking. One individual waked away as we approached them. Upon approach we smelled a strong odor of marijuana. Lieutenant Gankosky informed these individuals that it is strictly prohibited to smoke marijuana on Library property. We then approached the individual who we now know as Brittany Huston and informed her that it is against Library policy to smoke any controlled substance on Library property. Ms. Huston denied smoking anything at all. Myself and Lieutenant Gankosky then circled the lawn and observed Ms. Huston dancing on the bench. At this time we directed Ms. Huston and her accomplice Jamika Tucker into the detention room. We informed the two women that the behavior that they were performing was inappropriate and was not allowed on the Libraries premises. After checking for priors on these two individuals we were informed that Ms. Tucker was banned for a fight in November. I then asked the women if they had anything illegal on their person and Ms. Huston admitted to having pocket knives. At this time I informed these individuals I was going to search them. Upon searching Ms. Huston I did recover two pocket knife's and a marijuana cigarette. Ms. Tucker did not have anything illegal on her person. At this time Ms. Huston and Ms. Tucker were both informed that they are now banned from any Lucas County Public Library for a duration that is pending response from the Security Coordinator.

Incident Information: While on patrol Unit 5 (Lt. Gankosky), and Unit 19 (So. Cessna) were called to the front desk by a patron informing us that she was verbally harassed in the audio visual department. Victim said that the suspect called her a "fucking Mexican" when she was asking for help from the A/V Librarian. She described the person as a older African American looking for movies with a staff member. We approached the suspect and asked him to walk with us to DT. We then took his information and informed him that he would be most likely be banned for six months from main library as well as all of the branches. We also informed him that all the information on the incident, as well as the appeals process would be sent in a letter to his address. The Patron was aggressive and denied that he said anything. Incident Information: On the above date and time, I Officer Anderson encountered a group of individuals in the Metro room who were becoming an annoyance to the staff and patron's around them. Deondre White was an individual who was involved that was acting in an inappropriate and aggressive behavior. The librarian brought it to my attention that he was not logged on. She also stated that this subject was disruptive when he comes in. She also stated that if he does not log in he needs to leave. I informed Mr. White that if he was to continue sitting at the computer he needed to log in otherwise he could find a seat elsewhere. He then told me that I was harassing him and that he would log in when he wanted to. At this time he turned around to talk with the people that was sitting next to him. I then informed Mr. White that he needed to leave the library. As he was walking out he looked at the librarian and said something to her. She told me as I was walking out that she does not want him back in there. When we were exiting the library Mr. White asked to talk with someone in charge. Captain Bill Ervin, was standing at the door and he was informed of the situation. Captain Ervin stated that he is to be banned for his demeanor so we needed to take him back to the detention room. Mr. white was informed that he was now banned for harassment. Pending response from the Security Coordinator. At this time Mr. White was speaking inappropriately to each officer in the detention room as he was escorted out.

They started walking toward the corner of Manhattan and Lagrange St. I walked towards them, and then I heard the other girl say "Don't even touch my sister." When the other girl said the above statement J. Howard pushed the girl's sister. J. Howard started running towards the front of the library. I followed her and I told her to do not come back to the library until she receives a ban letter. I looked for victim, but she left by the time I was done talking to J. Howard. I did not ask J. Howard for her basic information because I had it from previous incidents.

Incident Information: At approximately 7:05pm I noticed a caucasian, teen boy, with his hood up looking at the DVD's. He proceeded to the Express checkout terminals, and began to type in a barcode, scan and unlock his material. I did not hear a receipt for the items print, and as he attempted to walk out the front door, I stopped him and asked if he received a receipt. He stated no, and that the items were checked out on his mother's card. I asked to check the items to ensure they were checked out correctly, and scanned the material. All 5 DVD's were not checked out. I asked for his mother's name, and he stated Gretchen Leslie. I asked how old he was, and he stated 13 years old. The mothers record showed that she had outstanding fines since Dec. 2011 that would have required checkouts on the account to be done at the help desk, with a payment. I have personally seen this individual at the Express Check and at the Heatherdowns Branch several times. I called Main Security and requested the tapes be looked at and pictures to be sent to my attention.

Incident Information: At approximately 10:15AM on Wed. Feb. 22, 2012, Allen Palicki called me to say that his brother Wesley has been stealing DVDs from both the Heatherdowns and Toledo Hts branches. He said that he found the DVDs in his home when his brother was living with him. When he (Allen) asked his brother how he had so many, Wesley told him that he would pretend to check them out at the express check out, but not scan his card until the end of the transaction, so nothing actually checked out on his card. Wesley no longer lives with Allen, but left the DVDs at Allen's house. I asked Allen to return the DVDs to us, letting us know the situation when he returned them. He said that he would do this. I also asked him if security could contact him, and he said yes. However, he doesn't want his brother to know he turned him in. He asked if his brother would be prosecuted for the offense, and I told him he would need to ask security. At 12:15pm, Allen came in and ret'd 39 DVD cases, one of which was empty, and 20 of which are broken security cases. With a repair cost of $5 a case, that is $100 of damage. The cost of the DVD that should have been in the empty case is $21. See attached list.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, I Officer Anderson was dispatched to Technology for a disturbance. Upon speaking with a Librarian, I was informed that a female I had told to leave the day prior was back and was being an annoyance to staff and other patrons. I informed this female who we now know as Ashley R. Johnson that she needed to leave and was not to return today. Ms. Johnson was using inappropriate language on her way out and was yelling profanities. Mrs. Johnson then returned a couple hours later and I then informed her that she gave me the wrong information earlier that day, she denied this and I then informed her to follow me to the detention room. I told Ms. Johnson I was going to pat her down, this was for my safety. Ms. Johnson at this time threw a crumpled piece of paper in the garbage. I told her twice to take it back out of the garbage. I then told Ms. Johnson that she was to face the window until I finished searching her personal items. On two occasions Ms. Johnson turned toward me. I repeatedly told her to turn around. I then found what appeared to look and smell like Marijuana in the paper she once tried to throw away. Deputy Gonzalez was informed. Upon his appearance Deputy Gonzalez gathered his needed information and then told Ms. Johnson that she would receive a citation in the mail. Ms. Johnson was also informed that she could be banned for up to a year from any Toledo Public Library pending response from the Security Coordinator. Ms. Johnson was non-compliant and inappropriate in her language to staff and was escorted out.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was dispatched to children's library for an attempted theft. When I got to the children's area, librarian (Mrs. Royuela - Tomas) had the suspect (Ms. Kelly) at her desk.

Mrs. Royuela stated that the suspect had taken a jacket (Belonging to her brother), and a purse (not belonging to anyone in the group [unknown to Mrs. Royuela]) from their "lost and found". Mrs. Royuela later got a call from the owner of the purse. The suspect was then tracked down and the purse was returned to the children's area.

When I arrived in children's I found the suspect and the librarian at the desk. The librarian then explained what had happened. I then asked the girl, and the group she was with, to follow me to the DT room. Once in DT I explained that theft is strictly prohibited and that she will most likely be banned for a year from all of the Toledo Lucas County Public Libraries. I also told the suspect that a letter will come in the mail with all of the information including an appeals process. Suspect then left the library without further incident.

Incident Information: On the above date and time I, Officer Anderson was dispatched to the front of the Library for loitering. Upon arrival, I witnessed a fight in progress on Library property. At the corner of Michigan and Madison on Library property a large group of African American males were beating another male with closed fists. These individuals were also kicking the male who was on the ground. I began running towards the fight repeatedly yelling to these individuals to break it up. They failed to disperse. The males were shouting obscenities at each other. I could see the males face who was on the ground as I approached and it was bloody. To prevent loss of life and any more bodily injury to this individual for his safety against these males I drew my weapon and again commanded them to quit. At this time the males again failed to disperse. I again yelled to this group to disperse and the group at this time complied. I holstered my weapon and I observed the suspects reversing in the bank parking lot in a dark blue Jeep Cherokee. License plate number was EQL1954. The male who was driving the vehicle was shouting profanity at me. He directly stated "bitch if you get my plate number I am coming back."

Note: This Officer was unable to obtain any personal information from any of the suspects involved.

Incident Information: On time and date mentioned above, M. Galloway was sitting on computer #6 watching a video. She started screaming and one of the librarians told her that she could not do that. M. Galloway said "Sorry" in a loud voice. The librarian told her that she was still screaming and she needed to take her headphones out from her ears. M. Galloway started getting mad and started making noises. I approached her and told her that she is in a library where people are working on stuff. She started getting very irritating and frown her face. Then she said "I apologized, fuck this." I told her to leave the library. M. Galloway asked me for my name because she was going to complain. I gave it to her and she left without further incidents.

Incident Information: On 3/12/12 at approximately 1500 hours I observed the suspect, Laquita, get up from computer #3 and walked back to the dvd section. Laquita had left her infant in a baby carrier next to computer #3 on the floor. Another patron came and sat down at computer #3. The patron asked Jane about the unattended baby left at computer #3. I went to the dvd section and advised Laquita that she needed to get her baby from computer #3 and to not leave him unattended. Laquita went and picked up her baby and took him and the carrier back to the dvd section. Approximately 10 minutes later, I observed Laquita take her baby carrier and place it on the floor, next to the seat under the front TV, near the entrance. Laquita's friend had a young child sleeping on the seat and an infant in a baby carrier sitting next to Laquita. A few minutes later, both Laquita and her friend had left both infants and the young child unattended. I proceeded to look for them. I found Laquita in the first row of bookshelves. I advised Laquita that she could not leave the infants and child unattended on library grounds. Laquita advised that she understood. Laquita's friend had been in the restroom. Laquita and her friend left without further incident.

Incident Information: Mr. Williams used two other library accounts - other then his own to obtain internet access. Once on Tuesday 3/13 in the evening: 5000045688/Donald Benton: mother Erica Benton and on Wednesday 3/14 at 1350 - Shonquell Denson/5000684 mother: Patricia Jordan. Ms. Benton was contacted RE: her son's account whom she stated he did not have permission to share his library information. He told her at the time of my phone call he has his card with pin written on it. Ms. Jordan was contacted but person answering that stated no one by that name was at that number. Therefore Mr. Williams used at least one library account holder's information without that person's permission.

Incident Information: On time and date mentioned above, Meta Wilkins (adult) approached the general manager and told her that C. Self used profanity words against her. According to M. Wilkins, C. Self was talking to her and he said "Shut up bitch." C. Self immediately left the property before the general manager could talk to him. The general manager told M. Wilkins that out policy does not tolerate that type of behavior and C. Self will be reported to the security officer so he will write a report about the incident. The general manager asked M. Wilkins basic information, and then informed me about the incident. The general manager confirmed that the above incident is true due to the previous behavior from C Self.
During the time at the Lagrange Branch, C. Self was asked to leave on 2/27/2012 for one day and was banned for one week on 2/15/2012. Also see previous file on C. Self.

Incident Information: Mike Shay is a well known customer whom staff members have spent hours helping, especially on the computer. He is usually perfectly nice, but he loses his temper sometimes. My understanding is that he has suffered a traumatic brain injury. Yesterday 3/13 he called to renew his book. Since there were 10 people on a waiting list for the book, Nikki told him that he was not able to renew the book. He got verbally abusive to Nikki, she asked him not to do that, and she let him know she would hang up the phone if he didn't lower his voice and stop swearing at her. He did not stop, and then she did hang up. He called back, got Denise and yelled at Denise for several minutes. Denise did not renew his book either. She gave Mike, Cathy Bartel's number. He apparently left Cathy a voice mail message. Among the specific things that he said to Nikki and Denise were "This is bullshit" "This is some fucking bullshit" and "Why the hell can't I renew the book if I'm not done with it" and "Screw you people." This morning, he called the branch and I spoke with him myself. He was loud and agitated. He said he was mad because Cathy "is refusing to call me back" and "you are full of shit." He complained again that he was unable to renew his book the day before, and said "I've spoken to the Americans with Disabilities Act" and "I've got a lawyer Mr. Chuck, and you all are discriminating against me for my disability" and "I asked my friends and they all renew their books all the goddamn time." I actually renewed his book for him, explained that it was a favor I would do this one time, to go against policy because I know him and his issues, and I understood that he was upset. He said he was mad that we had the policy in the first place, and he continued to yell and swear. I asked him not to swear and shout at me or the other staff, and reminded him that we had already had this conversation the last time he was in the branch, when he shouted at me over a small fine. (At that time i asked him not to swear in the library, and he said "up yours" and walked out, saying "This is some bullshit, I don't have any goddamn fines, I called it in, and you all are full of shit.") Among other things that he repeated on the phone to me, that were similar to those listed above, he also said "Listen up, you little girl, maybe you live in sissy land, but it's a free goddamn country and I will talk however the hell I want , to you or anybody. Do you understand me?" before hanging up on me.

Incident Information: On the stated date and time, I responded to a patron, Gerald W. Shelton, loitering in the front of the building. Upon arrival, Gerald began to argue his rights by the Constitution to freely stand on the public sidewalk and obtain signatures for his cause, Ohioans for Workplace Freedom. After multiple attempts by myself, Ofc Timm, Ofc Hornyak, and Ofc Anderson to explain T-LCPL policy on loitering in front of the library, Gerald continued to refuse to leave the property. At 1448 TPD non-emergency line was contacted to inform them of the situation and request an officer to assist. Upon TPD arrival, myself and Ofc Anderson explained the situation to the TPD officers. TPD informed Gerald that they could arrest him for disorderly conduct if needed. Gerald made a verbal threat to file a lawsuit if he was arrested. At this point, TPD officers offered Gerald another option to stay on the south side of the building, past the bike rack and the light post and not disrupt patrons of the library, which he accepted and agreed to comply. TPD departed the scene and there was no further incident.

Incident Information: On time and date mentioned above, one of the librarians approached me and told me that she recognized the suspect of the bicycle theft that happened 3/21/2012. She confirmed that C. Poore was walking towards the back of the library to take the GED class. I called dispatch to inform them. The dispatch called TPD officer B. Daniels, our unit 66. When Officer B. Daniels arrived, I explained to him the situation and showed him the pictures of the theft. We approached C. Poore and explained to him the situation. Officer B. Daniels asked him if he took a bicycle on the date mentioned above. C. Poore admitted taking the bicycle because his cousin told him that someone stole his bicycle. So C. Poore thought that the bicycle at the library was his cousins. Officer B. Daniels called TPD dispatch and ran C. Poore's basic information. The dispatch told Officer B. Daniels that the suspect had no previous criminal records. We asked C. Poore if he could bring the bicycle back to the library or a warrant will be issued for his arrest. C. Poore agreed to bring it back. About 10 minutes later, C. Poore brought the bicycle and I explained to him the process. I contacted the C. Sylvester, The owner of the bicycle. The owner picked up his bicycle without further incidents. The general manager, Lisa Green, and Officer B. Daniels suggest that C. Poore should not be banned, because he has no previous criminal history, no previous history with the library and he is working to complete his GED class. Also during the investigation, C. Poore was honest, brought the bicycle back and made mistake identifying the bicycle. For further questions about the incident, please contact Lisa Green.

Incident Information: On 3/23 Jonathan tried to sign onto public PC. He gave his name as "Calvin Woodard." We found out later that Calvin is a classmate of Jonathan's, and took away the note on which we'd written Calvin's barcode.
On 3/26 Jonathan placed in the return bin at least 7 DVD's each missing one or more discs. We have video footage of him "returning" these items, and also a witness, Zach Weltlin. When checking in the items, we found the items had never been checked out and were missing discs. Today 3/27, I called Jonathan's mother and informed her of the missing items and that Jonathan was trying to use someone else's card. She promised to look for the missing DVD's. As of 4/2/12, nothing has been returned.

Incident Information: On date and time above I noticed 4-5 kids leave suddenly out the door. I followed outside and saw the stated suspects and victim in the parking lot yelling at one another and were about to fight. As soon as I made my way towards the suspects everybody took off running in different directions. Victim was only one who didn't run, his information was gathered and was asked what was going on. Victim stated "they were talking trash and wanted to throw down." Victim stated the two suspects had jumped him last week elsewhere and now wanted to fight him again. I called down to dispatch for pictures to be sent to my location. Victim went inside to call for a ride to pick him up instead of him walking home. Suspects were identified as victim knew both of them. Suspects came back onto library property and sat on the bench waiting for the victim to exit. As I approached the suspects they slowly began to walk away from property. Both suspects were instructed to leave the property and that they would be getting a letter stating when they could return. Suspects attempted to return once more and when threatened to be arrested for trespassing left property for good. Victims father came and picked up son. Report was then made out.

Incident Information: On 4-3-12 Mary Besteder who works for Toledo Police called seeing if her granddaughter was skipping school and inside the library. Mrs Besteder said her granddaughter's name was Jemiah Thompson. I informed Mrs. Besteder that Ms. Thompson had been in the library but had just left. At that point Mary Besteder requested that I call her at work if her granddaughter is in the library during school hours. According to Mrs. Besteder the family was just in court a few days ago due to Ms. Thompson's truant problems, and the court order that Ms. Thompson's mother take her to school and sign her in everyday. Mrs. Besteder also said she had contact with the officer that was out at this location prior to my arrival.

On 4-4-12 Ms. Thompson had entered the building right at 9 am and handed the staff a note from her mom Benita Besteder saying she was allowed in the library today. I contacted Mary Besteder to inform her that her granddaughter was in the building but had a note from her mother stating she could be in the library. Mary Besteder said thank you and informed me she would call back in a few minutes. A few minutes later Mary Besteder called back asking if her granddaughter was still in the library. After I told her she was Mrs. Besteder told me that a Toledo crew was en route to pick up Ms. Thompson and that she was leaving work after seeing if any warrants had been issued yet on Ms. Thompson or her mom Benita. At 1030 Toledo Police arrived and I informed them of the situation at that point they made contact with Ms. Thompson. At 1040 Ms. Thompson's mom came to pick her up for a Doctor's appointment. At that point the grandmother Mary Besteder also came into the library and started to question why her granddaughter wasn't in school. Toledo Police and the Besteder family moved the conversation outside where they stayed for 10 minutes. Ms. Thompson did leave with her mom for the Doctor's appointment, Mary Besteder came back in to request I still call her if her granddaughter continues to come in during school hours so she can keep track of how often this happens so when the next court date in May she can inform the Judge of the lack of improvement. Manager Julie Bursten was informed of what had taken place and report was made to document the incident.

Incident Information: Mr. Friend is a daily, all-day customer. He appears to be homeless. The address reported here is from his driver's license. Other customers complain about Mr. Friend for looking shabby and spending a lot of time here, but he doesn't usually break the code of conduct in anyway. However, I have spoken to him twice about making a mess in the men's room, yet he did it again yesterday. He takes cigarette butts out of the ashtray outside, brings them into the men's room, and rolls new cigarettes on the baby changing table. Tobacco and ashes and bits of paper get all over the table and floor. Patrons complain about it and nobody would want to put a baby on that changing table after Mr. Friend has messed it up. We have already swapped the old cement-and-stand ashtray for the new "butt station" kind, just to address this one customer's behavior. However he figures out how to get the lid off the new ashtray, and is back to bad habits every day that I am not here personally. I asked him to leave for the day.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report this officer was patrolling in Technology. I witnessed a patron by the name of Johnathan Smith sitting at a computer not logged on. Johnathan was asked to log on a computer or he would have to step away from it. Johnathan ignored my request and started getting really upset and was swearing. I told the patron that he would have to leave for the day for using abusive language. While escorting the patron out of the building he threatened this officer. Patron told me "your lucky you have that badge on or my ass would've been dropped". I then told the patron he would have to go to DT for threatening an officer. He again ignored my request and started to walk away from me. I then grabbed his arm, the patron yanked away from me and got in my face bumping me with his chest. I then called for back up, TPD officer Amanda Evans arrived and grabbed the patrons arm. The patron finally calmed down and was escorted to DT. He was then explained that he would be banned for six (6) months. Patron was escorted out of the building and left without further incident.

Incident Information: On the stated date and time, while patrolling, S/O Johnson stopped me and informed me that she had been told by a patron that there was a banned patron standing outside on library property. I approached the suspect, Tiara Kasten, and informed her that she needed to come inside with me. I escorted Kasten inside to the DT room and confronted her about being a banned patron and she admitted that she was but she did not know that she couldn't be on the sidewalk in front of the library. I informed her of T-LCPL policy on banned patrons thoroughly and warned her that now she is aware of the policy and any further incidents would result in her being charged with criminal trespassing. I collected her personal information and then escorted Kasten off library property without further incident.

Incident Information: On the stated date and time, while on door post, I observed the suspect, Julian Williams, exiting the library being escorted by S/O Cessna. S/O Cessna informed me that Williams had been banned for the day for verbally harassing a female in the library. I watched Williams walk down towards the bike rack and turn around and start approaching the library again and informed him that he needed to exit the property as he was now trespassing. Williams responded by verbally harassing me, stating "fuck you, don't talking to me," and "I ain't going nowhere bro." Due to him refusing to follow instructions, I informed him that he needed to follow me inside. I gave Williams 3 verbal instructions to follow me inside which he responded to with refusal, saying "I ain't going inside with you bro" and "get the fuck away from me, I ain't going in there." I then began to physically escort Williams inside at which point he pulled away from me. After gaining physical control of Williams, again, I assisted him inside the building. At this point, Williams continued to struggle, swinging his elbows in order to get out of my control. I assisted Williams against the dispatch window in order to gain compliance from him. Ofc Hornyak was called to assist and Williams became compliant. Myself and Ofc Hornyak escorted Williams to the DT room where we gathered his personal information and ran his library history for any prior instances. It was learned that Williams had two prior instances at the library, involving both, Criminal Trespassing and Verbal Harassment. Williams was then searched and Unit 66 was called to talk to the suspect. Williams showed continued compliance, therefore, no criminal charges were issued. Williams was made aware that this was his second offense within one year for harassment and trespassing, therefore, he would be banned for up to one year and he would receive a ban letter in the mail. Williams was escorted off the property without any further issue.

Incident Information: During our Spring Egg Hunt, an ice cream truck driver apparently saw all the kids and double-parked in out parking lot, blocking several people in on both sides. The loud music was distracting to customers inside the library, but by the time I got out there through the crowd to ask him to move along, there was a crowd around the truck and it was impossible for him to move. One customer was parked in, and very annoyed. When the ice cream truck's line went down and he was able to move the truck, he just parked at the edge of the gravel parking lot for the softball field, and continued to draw customers from the Egg Hunt, across the parking lot, to wait in line at the ice cream truck. I went over again and explained that it was a safety hazard to have all the kids in waiting line in the parking lot, and that he wasn't allowed to sell things on the Library property, and he finally left after everyone in line had bought their ice cream.

Incident Information: Staff member Elisha Lynch was on her way over to help this patron, who was clearly having trouble checking his own items out. However, he put them all in a bag and left before she could get over there. She found his station displaying the message that his card had a problem. She went out to ask him if he needed help getting his items checked out, but he insisted that he did in fact check them out already. He did not respond to her request to show his request to show his receipt, and he rode away on his bike.

Incident Information: When Nathaniel comes into the branch his behavior is such that he would be asked to quiet down. He spends his time using the computers and will often have very loud outbursts of laughter, which usually continues to the point of him being asked to leave for the day. Most days he has a glassy stare and seems to not respect what he is being asked to do. On several occasions patrons have come in reporting a young man fitting his description of pan handling. Over time, not only have I talked to him about solicitation on library property but so have other staff members and our security guard. He would always say it wasn't him. Today he approached the information desk and asked a staff member for money stating "his parents threw him out the house and he hasn't eaten in two days." This is also what a few patrons have stated why the pan handler asked them for money. I have tried to work with this young man on his behavior while on library property but to no avail. For this (his actions) I recommend banning him for the maximum time.

Incident Information: On 4/10/12 at 1341 hours while observing the computer area, I heard Steven Rader say to person next to him fuck that man. Steven was sitting at computer #9 and the guy he talked to was at computer #8. I approached Steven and advised him that he cannot use that language here in the library. Steven stated fuck you man. I told him he had to leave because he continued to use profane language. He stated that he wasn't fucking leaving. I proceeded to log off Steven from his computer. When I touched the mouse Steven grabbed my arm and stated fuck you man this is my computer. I grabbed Steven's upper arm and advised him to let go of my arm. I advised Steven that he had to leave for using profane language. Steven then stood up and went to his friend at computer #11 and stated, hey this fucking guard is kicking me out, let's fucking go. As I followed Steven out of the library he continued to use profane language, telling me that I'm a fucking bitch ass security guard. I asked Steven for his name, but Steven told me to fuck off. Steven told me that I didn't need to fucking follow him out of the library. I advised Steven that I have to make sure he gets off library property. After exiting the library I stayed on the walk way in front of the library, I advised Steven that was not allowed back at T-LCPL for his actions. I observed Steven walk through the parking lot toward the parking lot entrance on Jay St. Steven continued to yell profane and abusive comments toward me. While Steven was inside the library using profane language, all of the computers were being used and there was a class of second graders that were in the children's area. I called main dispatch and advised Capt. J. Fisher of the situation.

At approximately 1350 hours Steven came back into the library. I approached Steven near the front doors and the circulation desk and advised him that he cannot be here. I advised Steven that I was going to detain him. I grabbed Steven's right arm and attempted to turn him around to place cuffs on him. Steven proceeded to pull away asking why I was arresting him. I advised him that I was not arresting him, I was just detaining him. I proceeded to explain to Steven that I was detaining him for trespassing back onto the property. Steven stated that he did not want to be detained, that he would leave if I let him go. Steven calmed down enough for me to speak with him. I did not put cuffs on Steven. I told Steven that I need his name, DOB, and address. Steven cooperated and gave me his information. I advised him he would be banned for harassment of staff and that he was going to be banned from all T-LCPL's for 1 year and that he was going to get a letter in the mail. I advised Steven that he could not act that way here at the library. I let Steven leave the library, he left without further incident.

Incident Information: Mr. Oberle reported that he has started to use the Sanger branch library instead of this one, because there is "an older lady" who keeps trying to touch him when he is using the computers. He said this has been going on for weeks, and that he has made himself as clear as he can with her, but that she seems to have personal problems that prevent her from getting the message. He declined to give the woman's name, although he knows it and he says we would know her. He says he doesn't want to make a big deal out of it, but wants his complaint to go on record "just in case." He is also annoyed at having to use other libraries because someone is repeatedly pestering him here. I offered to speak to the woman, but he declined.

REPORTED AND SIGNED BY: HANNAH LAMMIE

UPDATED

Mr. Oberle complained today that Ms. Gragg followed him around the building again. She logged into the computer directly behind him, for the length of his session, then followed him to different parts of the building, sometimes bumping into Mr. Oberle on purpose. He was unhappy about her behavior and didn't want to leave through the front door, since he knew she was parked outside waiting for him to come out. Mr. Onerle did not want me to write a report about Ms. Gragg's behavior, but I explained that our policies require me to report unusual events.

Incident Information: On the day and time stated a patron notified Officer Zach McClain of a male subject on the north lawn that was laying on the ground. I Sgt. Tracy and Officer Hornyak went to the scene. The male subject was on the ground and appeared to be shaking and slurred in speech. There was no smell of an alcoholic beverage. Officer Hornyak radioed Dispatch for paramedics. I Sgt. Tracy was able to get a name from a court summons found in his Bible. The subject was Mr. Bancenass. Paramedics arrived and evaluated Mr. Bancenass and took his vitals. His vital appeared to be normal and paramedics did not take Mr. Bancenass to the hospital. Paramedics left the scene. I told Mr. Bancenass that he could sit on the bench a little longer, but would have to make his way to the mission so he could get some dry, clean clothes. Approximately twenty minutes later I observed Mr. Bancenass still sitting on the bench where he appeared slumped over. I Sgt. Tracy and Officer Anderson went out again to check Mr. Bancenass. We notified Dispatch to call TPD to come and possibly take Mr. Bancenass to the hospital or Cherry Street Mission. Upon TPD arrival they observed him and asked if he wanted to go to the hospital or to jail. Mr. Bancenass speech was hard to understand and did not seem he could make that choice. TPD officers then took him to the cruiser where they were making a final decision where to take Mr. Bancenass.

Incident Information: On the above date and time I, Officer Anderson informed a patron who we now know as Lois M. Middlebrooks to take her hood down. Ms. Middlebrooks shook her head as an acknowledgment to what I instructed her to do. I then walked around the computers in pop teen and I came back to Ms. Middlebrooks and I again informed her to take her hood down. Ms. Middlebrooks stated to me "Damn, I will when I get good and ready whats the big deal." At this time I informed Ms. Middlebrooks that it was Library policy. I also informed her that she did not need to speak to me that way and at this time she needed to log off of the computer. Ms. Middlebrooks then stated, "Shit okay i will." At this time Ms. Middlebrooks grabbed her belongings and her infant child who was in a carrier and she began to leave the Library. I followed Ms. Middlebrooks out of pop teen and she then went towards the restroom. I informed Ms. Middlebrooks that it was not okay for her to use the restroom and that she needed to leave the Library right away. She questioned me as to why I was making her leave and I informed her that it was because of the scene she had made as well as her not following my instructions of taking her hood down, which she still did not comply with. Ms. Middlebrooks began to use profanity towards me that I could not clearly make out. As she continued to walk in the bathroom Ms. Middlebrooks stated "Fuck this Library I will do what the fuck I want and none of you can do shit, it's just a fucking hood." At this time I called for another Officer to assist me and Ms. Middlebrooks came out of the bathroom cursing still and she took the carrier that still had the infant in it and tossed it down carelessly on the floor. She then took the hood off and stated "are you happy." At this time Officer Cessna and Sgt. Tracy came out of the security office and we escorted Ms. Middlebrooks to the detention room. Where she was still making inappropriate comments toward all of the Officers in the room. Ms. Middlebrooks was informed that she will receive a letter in the mail regarding the length of her ban. At this time she was escorted out. Ms. Middlebrooks informed us through non direct comments that she will be filing a compliant because if she has to keep her hood down then others should not wear hats.

Incident Information: An elderly woman using a walker was brought in by her husband about 6:00pm. He told the Reference Librarian he would be in a meeting for a while.. we assumed he meant in our building. About 7:00pm the woman asked us to get her husband as she wanted to leave. He was not in either meeting currently in the branch. We attempted to get ID from her, but she was carrying nothing. We did find her registered as a library patron and called the home number. no answer. She kept getting more and more agitated and upset. We called Waterville Police and explained situation. 2 Officers arrived shortly and began asking her some of the same questions we had. We finally found a son at the same address in our database., with a different phone number. Left a message for him and he finally called back. He talked with one of the police officers, and eventually got hold of his sister to come pick their mother. He gave the officers description of his father's car, and they found the gentleman at a meeting in the Recreation Building in Conrad Park adjacent to the Branch. The husband arrived at 8:25 to take his wife to the car and apologized for the situation. The daughter arrived at 8:30 and also apologized profusely for the problem.

Incident Information: Patron Ralph Trease needed to use the men's room, but Mr. McGee was in the stall for a very long time, moaning and singing and apparently in distress. he did not respond to Mr. Trease asking if he needed help.

According to Mr. Trease, the man in the stall(McGee) finally stood up, got dressed, opened the stall door, and tried to punch Mr. Trease.

According to Mr. McGee, Mr. Trease opened the stall door on him unexpectedly, and that is when and why he took a swing at Mr. Trease. Mr. McGee then went back into the stall and re-locked the door, and asked Mr. Trease to leave him alone. Mr. Trease then used the staff bathroom with my permission.

Both men wanted to talk to a police officer, so we called one. Officer Toska talked to them each separately. She told Mr. McGee that taking a swing at somebody is never acceptable. Mr. McGee got very upset and began yelling things, including "Don't fuck with me" and "my son is a police officer in Columbus" Officer Toska asked Mr. McGee to leave the library, but he wouldn't. She finally walked away from him and he did leave, yelling on his way out the door.

Three other things;

1. The latch on the men's room stall works fine.
2. Mr. McGee was cursing and yelling at the computer earlier that evening, while I was in book discussion, and the staff was waiting for me to come out so that I could ask him not to do that. he said "God dammit" several times very loudly.
3. Mr. McGee is pretty ill and was clearly in a lot of pain last night. he was wincing and gasping. I understand he was stomach cancer.

Incident Information: Melissa Peyton reported a woman pulled out in front of her vehicle as she was leaving for dinner. The woman was driving a large green Jeep and driving erratically. She purposely continued to hit the breaks and peered in the rear view mirror as Melissa followed. Melissa had to slam on her breaks numerous times to avoid hitting the woman's vehicle. She kept changing lanes and swerving in front of Melissa's car. She then took off on Byrne Road at a high rate of speed. Security was contacted regarding possible pictures of the vehicle in the parking lot. They reported no pictures were visible.

Incident Information: While on patrol I received a call that Circulation pushed the panic button. When I arrived on scene Vicki and Veronica stated that they had a patron who was being very disrespectful. Suspect 1 (Ms. Sylla), and Suspect 2 (Ms. Hornes) were at the counter yelling at the two circulation clerks. Once in DT the suspects became very loud saying that the circulation clerks were wrong and the suspects were being harassed by the staff. After a few minutes of talking suspects started cursing and screaming. On the way out the suspects saw Vicki and said "Fuck You Bitch!".

Patrons should be banned for a year considering they were just told about harassing staff and they did it again on the way out. Their actions show that they don't care about the staff, other patrons, or the Library.

Incident Information: On the day and time stated a man had walked up to supervisor Amber Kroggel and stated that his child was missing and that she was dropped off at approximately between 11:30-11:45 a.m. The supervisor asked, "did you look around the library?" he stated "yes" she asked again, "did she come in with someone from the library or did she leave with someone?" He stated, "No she was dropped off earlier today and should have stayed here until I came back and got her." He wanted to know if we could review security cameras or see what time she may have logged off the computer. The supervisor at that point told the man he should talk to Sgt. Tracy he can help you more. I Sgt. Tracy talked to Larry Howard. He stated that he was the uncle of the girl missing. I asked for a description he said he was not sure what she was wearing or her description. He then called his wife who then was able to give me a description and what clothes she was wearing. It was brought to my attention by the supervisor that Mr. Howard was not the legal guardian. I informed Mr. Howard since you are not the legal guardian I would not be able to give out any personal information about the girl missing should I find her. He stated that his wife is in a custody battle right now for her and is right now the legal guardian of the girl. I then got a phone number and contacted Raquel Howard and confirmed what Mr. Howard had said. I then informed Dispatch of the situation and asked to have cameras reviewed and talk to the supervisor again to see what time Sharee-ta Gibson Grice had logged off the computer. Dispatch reviewed cameras and Sharee-ta was seen in the library and seen leaving after her last log in at 2:12 p.m. and log off at 3:09 p.m. Dispatch asked if I had contacted TPD yet. I said I have not but wanted to make sure the building and grounds were searched again before doing so. I stayed in touch with Mrs. Howard and informed her of what I have found and that I would do another sweep through the building and around the building. I found no sign of her. I contacted Dispatch again stating I could not locate the missing girl. Dispatch indicated that TPD should be called by the parents so they can do a missing persons report since the girl did leave the library property by herself. I once again contacted Mrs. Howard to inform her of what she should do at this point. In our conversation she stated that Mr. Howard had seen her walking down Manhattan Road and picked her up. I told her I'm glad she is safe and you have her. Mr. and Mrs. Howard returned to the library and asked why Sharee-ta was not able to use the phone when she had asked to. The supervisor told them that Sharee-ta made no indication that she did not have any money to make a phone call to get a ride or that there was an emergency to contact a guardian. The supervisor also informed the parents that if it had been an emergency or told them she did not have any money to make a phone call they would have allowed her to use the phone. Also, the guardians were told that it was library policy that all patrons are to use the pay phone located in the lobby. No further incident.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called to the front doors by Unit 14 (Fane, Gaines) who witnessed the suspect (Mr. Fisher, Jeremy) harassing some other patrons as they tried to enter the library. I then approached the suspect and asked him for his information. He gave me the name of Dawson, Jordan R.

Today (Monday 04/30/2012) I saw the suspect in the library and told him that he was banned and that he needed to stay off the property. A few hours later he was again on library property outside by the benches. I approached the suspect and asked him to follow me to the DT room. I had a feeling that he was giving me bad information so I called our TPD officer (Officer Vasquez) and asked him to verify the suspects information.

Once Officer Vasquez was on site he got the suspects information and explained the eviction guidelines. Suspect signed for his ban letter then left library property for the day. Suspect left without further incident.

Incident Information: On the above day and time I Sgt. Tracy observed children playing in the parking lot. I went to the children and told them they cannot play in the parking lot it is very dangerous. Upon this incident a juvenile Isaiah Dixon was sitting on the curb with a DVD in his hand. One of the young girls in the parking lot stated that he stole it. I had asked Isaiah if he stole the DVD and he said no. He stated that he had checked it out with someone else card. I told him he could not use another person card to check items out. He then said some short kid gave it to him and he was the one that stole it. I asked for a name and a description and Isaiah could not give a name or description. After that the same young girl came up to me and said she was kidding about Isaiah stealing the DVD. I asked Isaiah again if he stole the DVD and he stated no. I asked if he checked the DVD out and if he had a receipt to prove that he checked it out. He again said no. I informed Isaiah that if the DVD is in his possession was not checked out that he could be charged for theft. I asked a librarian to verify if the DVD was checked out and the DVD was not checked out by no one. I informed the manager Lisa Green of the incident. She stated that Isaiah has been warned before about trying to take materials from the library without checking them out. I confiscated the DVD from Isaiah and told him to leave. He left without further incident.

Incident Information: Late afternoon on Wednesday May 2, I (Jessica Luce) was walking from the backroom to the reference desk. When I looked over to the nonfiction stacks I saw Angela Wilson browsing. She looked a little startled and proceeded to place a stack of items into her bag. I thought this action was suspicious and decided to shelve some items in the area she was standing. After a few minutes she moved away and left the building. She was walking pretty fast and when she got to the parking lot she was running. I checked her record and she only had one item checked out. She also has a fine and cannot use the self-checkout machines. I called Main Security in the small chance, they could see if her bag was full when she left the building from the security cameras. Unfortunately they were not. I alerted some staff members of what I saw in case she returned or came in the next day.

Incident Information: Mr. Ahrendt came into the library shortly after it opened, and walked to the information desk and just stood there. I asked him if he needed help, and he replied "No, do you need help?" He then told me he does not read books, and asked if he was allowed to look at our books. He asked if we have DVD's, and then asked if all of our music was secular. He went up to the check-out desk, updated his card information, and checked out a music CD. He then immediately returned the music CD. At 11:00 A.M. Heidi Yeager was doing a story time for the Capable Kids School in the corner of the juvenile area. Mr. Ahrendt came and sat in a chair behind the children, quietly at first. He then started loudly answering the questions asked of the kids, and making loud remarks. He was asked to stop, but continued to make loud, disruptive comments. At this point I called security, as I wanted to ask him to leave but was not comfortable doing it myself, and the security guard who answered was not sure what to instruct me to do. While on the phone with security, one of the teachers came up to complain about Mr. Ahrendt, and I decided to just call the Sylvania Police. Ms. Yeager tried to keep the special needs children calm, trying to continue the story time. The Sylvania Police arrived and asked Mr. Ahrendt to leave for the day.

Incident Information: On the above date and time I, Officer Anderson was on the second floor in the Children's Library when I observed a woman strike her child in the chest with a closed fist. I approached the woman and I asked her if there was a problem. The woman replied that there was a problem with her child not listening. I asked the woman to leave the Children's area and speak to me in the hall. The woman gave me her information as she was leaving she stated that she did not have an I.D. on her person. I informed her that she could not touch her child the way she did while in the Library. While walking behind the woman on her way out with her children, Officer Molitoris and I, overheard the woman stating "I will knock your teeth out, your going back to foster care." I at this time called Sergeant Tracy outside who talked to the woman. As she was walking away myself and Sergeant Tracy over heard her telling her children "lets go I don't want TPD called or CSB in my life again." At this time the woman and the children were laughing and talking back and forth to each other as they walked away.

Toledo Police were called and they stated that they will be conducting a welfare check on this family today.

I, Officer Anderson went back to the Childrens Library and spoke with the Librarian who then informed me that the information given from the suspect was actually her little sisters information. The Librarian told me that she was watching this woman for quite some time. The Librarian also stated that the woman had held what appeared to be an infant in the air by the child's arms.

All Officers that were on duty on this date was made well aware of this woman. They were notified to obtain her correct information and bring this situation to the attention of their shift supervisor.

Incident Information: Patron was upset that extra pages printed out (she was printing from internet) and demanded refund. Since that is not usually our policy, I attempted to explain why you sometimes got more pages then you realize when printing from a website, and how to use print preview, but patron said "I'm not paying for these." (Although she already had, since the pages were printed), then she said "This is a crock of shit. Fuck you!" I told her that she needed to leave because of her language, and she replied that she was never coming back to this library. A year or two ago, an African American woman of about the same age/build said something similar to me when her print job did not come out as she wanted. I can't be sure, but it is possible this is the same woman; her name is probably Madlyn Stanley, because is appears at the top of one of the "extra" pages she left. Checked card # in computer use history, this is Madlyn Stanley.

Incident Information: On the stated date and approximate time, while patrolling in the computer area of the library I observed suspects 1 and 2 sitting at the computers. Suspect 2 had a baby with her and other children that were in the children's area of the library. The baby that was with suspect 2 started crying and the librarian, Barb, asked that I address the issue. I asked suspect 2 to try and calm the baby or possibly take her for a walk so that she was not distracting others at the computers, at which point she picked the baby up and to rock her. The other children that belonged to suspect 2 began to run around the library at this point and also began to get loud, which I addressed. After several minutes, the baby began to cry again, at which point I asked suspect 2 to take her baby outside for a walk and she refused. I told the lady that she was no longer being asked and that she had one minute to log off her computer or I would have a librarian shut her computer down. At this point, suspect 1, volunteered to take the baby so that suspect 2 could finish what she was working on. I thanked the lady and she began to stare at me in a hostile manner. I asked suspect 1 if I could help her with anything and she proceeded to tell me that I had no right to tell her or suspect 2 what to do and that she was free to be at the library if she wanted. Due to suspect 1 raising her voice and becoming more distracting to others, I informed her that she now needed to leave the library. Suspect 1 continued to raise her voice and continued to tell me that I wasn't the "real police" and she would leave when the "real police" arrived. I called dispatch to request Unit 66 to my location but an officer was not available. After talking to the branch manager, Faith, she requested to go talk to the lady. I went with Faith to talk to suspect 1 and she agreed to leave the library but shortly after became hostile towards me again and began to try to involve other patrons at the computers. At the request of Faith, I went to the front desk and began to wait for suspect 1 to exit the property. While she was exiting the property she asked for my name and badge number, which I gave to her. She then became hostile towards Faith, by saying, "Who are you?" and "Who do you think you are?" I approached suspect 1 one last time and informed her that it was time to leave at which point she stated "If you come near me I will knock you out and it will be worth the jail time because you are wrong!" Suspect 1 then left the property without further incident. I was unable to obtain personal information from suspect 1 so I requested a copy of the camera footage from dispatch. I am requesting a ban of 6 months for suspect 1, once identified. Suspect 2 left the library without any further incident.

Incident Information: I (John Molitoris) was called by dispatch while assisting Capt. Ervin in the DT with another pair of suspects. Dispatch informed me that someone was drinking on the Madison St side of the building near Commissioner's Plaza. I sent Officer Ross to the DT and made my way over to Commissioners Plaza and confronted the suspect (Darius Wilson) in question. I asked the suspect if he had any alcohol on him, he said he did not. I then asked the suspect to give me his coffee thermos so that I may inspect it. Upon inspection I viewed and smelled an alcoholic beverage within the thermos. I escorted the suspect to the Security Office, we went to this location because the DT was occupied with another pair of suspects at the time. It was here that the suspect's information was gathered and he was informed of library policy and his ban from the premises, he was also informed he will be receiving a ban letter. The suspect's clothing was searched by Lt. Gankowsky and myself, After he was finished being searched the suspect left the library premises with no further incident.

Incident Information: On date and time stated while on patrol on the North Civic Plaza I noticed Mr. Jeffrey A. Smith (suspect 1) and Ms. Massengill L. Linda (suspect 2) on the North side lawn. S2 was hugging S1 around the waist while seating down with her face in his stomach while S1 was standing in front on S2 playing with her hair after watching her do this 2 - 3 more times from my view point it looked as if S2 was giving oral sex to S1, I called dispatch to send any available to the north side lawn. Once Officer Molitoris arrived S1 and S2 discontinued what they were doing as officer Molitoris walked by I witnessed S1 adjust his pants and then gives S2 money. Officer Molitoris confronts S1 and S2 and tells them that they need to follow him to the D.T room. I then arrived to give him back up as they were going into the building S1 informs me that he does not like people walking behind him and if I continued bad thing could happen. I said he should think of it as a friendly escort into the building. I proceeded by walking along side of him to deter confrontation with S1. Once in DT room S1 and S2 information was obtained and TPD was called. Once TPD arrived S1 became verbally abusive to me by calling me a " racist ass dick head". I never responded to any of S1 commits, TPD Officer repeatedly ask S1 to stop, but he refused and continued calling me racist. TPD made a report of disorderly conduct. I informed S1 and S2 that they would be banned and not to return to any Toledo Public Library until they get ban letter stating date they could return. If they return they would be charged with criminal trespassing. S1 refused to take his license so TPD Officer gave it to S2. TPD also had to escort S1 out of library because he was being loud and using profane language. S2 was very corporative and left was out incident.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated above, I (John Molitoris) observed the suspect (Teresa McCaster) asleep in the Technology area of the library. I approached the suspect and asked three times for her to wake up. Upon the suspects lack of response I nudged her foot with the toe of my shoe. This woke the suspect up and I stated that this was the second time that I had caught her sleeping. I told the suspect that this was her final warning for this act. The suspect then looked away, I repeated myself and received no reply. I asked the suspect if she was feeling alright and again received no response. It was at this moment that I asked the suspect to come with me. I again received no response. I radioed for Lt. Gankowsky to come and assist. He proceeded to question the suspect if she was intoxicated, when she again failed to respond Lt. Gankowsky radioed dispatch who then in turn called for TPD to escort the suspect from the premises. While waiting for TPD to arrive I stayed with the suspect, she gave me the middle finger, I asked her to lower it so as to not offend any patrons. She kept the middle finger up until TPD arrived. Once TPD arrived I informed them of the situation and they began to address the suspect, she began to respond to them and produced her identification. I copied down the information on the ID card and stepped away to allow TPD to perform their job. TPD then escorted the suspect off of the premises without further incident.

Incident Information: Jamie Hall and her son, Niall Hall entered the library. Niall went between the CD shelf and the window. Ms. Hall was trying to get him to come out. She seemed to be getting frustrated with him, and hit him three times with a rubber stripping that he had pulled from the window. She then dragged him screaming across the floor and went in the large study room with Niall and his tutor and shut the door. She stood inside the room blocking the front of the door, while he threw tables and chairs around the room. I called Security, who then called the Sylvania police. Incident Information: On date above while coming on duty I was informed by West Toledo staff that they had already talked to a group of 4-5 kids who were on the computers twice for being loud and using inappropriate language. At that time Suspect 1 (Mr. Rogers) was yelling over to his friend 3 computers away. I then reminded the group one more time to be respectful to those around them and to keep the noise volume down. I also informed the group that the policy is one person per computer and those that weren't using a computer to either log on or sit somewhere else. Two minutes later Suspect 3 (Mr. Seegert) shouted to Suspect 1 who was 2 computers down. At that point I informed the group that they would all have to leave for the day due to already having three warnings given to them. Mr. Rogers then stated "Man I don't give a shit I live out in Oregon." Once he logged off he again stated "This is some bullshit." All three suspects while exiting the library then began using inappropriate language with Mr. Rogers being the main offender. He also stated towards Suspect 3 "I'll kick your ass when we get outside for getting us kicked out of the library." I escorted the group out of the building where once outside Mr. Rogers continued to run his mouth saying "Fucking asshole you don't need to be following us." I informed him and the group that when they are kicked out of the library that means they can't stay on Library property. Mr. Rogers was the only one who attempted to stay on the property only leaving when told he would be detained for Criminal Trespassing. Dispatch was contacted to see id any of the suspects had prior offenses and report was made.

Incident Information: I noticed a group of people milling around a car in the back parking lot. Three women and one man where looking at the car and the man was attempting to open the hood. In order to see if they needed help with the car, Officer Anderson went outside to access the situation. She asked if they needed help and made sure everyone and everything was okay. She stated the man said they were conducting personal business and didn't need anything. One of the women in the group told the officer that he saw her car advertised on Craig's List and they were looking at it to buy . Officer Anderson told the man looking was fine but buying/selling property on library grounds was not allowed. He became belligerent towards her and started cussing at her. Officer Anderson attempted to get their names but both refused to tell her. She then walked away to inform me of the situation. I told her it was fine to look at the car but no buying and selling per policy, as she had already indicated to the man. The officer went back out and asked them to please move their vehicle across the street off library property if they were interested in making a transaction. It was then the man became even more verbally abusive to her and, as she was walking away, a woman, allegedly his wife, jumped out of the back seat of their car and also began verbally assaulting Officer Anderson, both yelling "f-you" and "who do you think you are?", "you have no authority to ask us to leave", "f-ing bitch", telling her they were patrons here and she couldn't make them leave. Officer Anderson continued walking away to warn me of the situation as the man shouted he was coming in to speak to the manager.

I was notified he was at the customer service and was very "irate." As I walked out from the workroom area, I heard him being verbally abusive to out clerk Victor Lopez. When I asked how I could help him and could see he was clearly agitated, I indicated we step into a quiet study room. I wanted to insure he was given privacy to state his grievance but also protect other patrons who were at the desk and express checks stations who were beginning to stare as well as myself and Officer Anderson. He did not want her in the room with us but I suggested she needed to be as she was the one who involved in the situation.

The gentleman stated they were regular patrons here (I vaguely remember his face, his wife, who was still in the parking lot, I could not identify) and he said they often use our parking lot to look at cars to buy/sell as they use the computers for Craig's List ads. He was very rude to Officer Anderson - who remained silent during his relaying of the situation, and scoffed several times at her authority, saying she has no right to tell him to leave. I listened, then explained the library policy of not buying/selling things on property and the issue was not them looking at the car, it was that she heard someone state they were selling it here and then the situation escalated to the man and his wife verbally assaulting Officer Anderson. She reported the two other women physically backed up when he was being aggressive in the parking lot, telling the officer that they didn't want anything to do with this, they just received a phone call from him and met him here. He continued to berate Officer Anderson in my presence and stated that "she is lying."

He then proceeded to say "that really isn't the issue here anyway" and stated Officer Anderson was standing behind his computer when he had a personal documents and bank statements on the screen. I then continued to remind him that he was in a public building, using public computers, and he agreed to our Internet policy acknowledging this. He said "it's not just her, it's the gentleman security guards, too. They are always looking over my shoulder at my personal information. I am afraid for my safety." I agreed the seating is not ideal because of the proximity of fellow patrons so close next to each other and also people walking behind the computers with books behind the patrons using them but assured him that Officer Anderson was simply doing her job by patrolling the building, doing her rounds, making others feel safe in the library.

I had given him Mr. Sabo's contact information at the beginning of our conversation. He then, at the end of this, asked "Who's the end of this branch?" I informed him I was the manager of this branch. He hesitated a few moments then said, "Well, who's your boss?" I proceeded to give him Ms. Naylor's name. I asked him for his name and he said, "Sure." Then he wrote down his first name as Keith, "I'm not leaving my last name. I am a patron here." As he was leaving the quiet study room, he turned to Officer Anderson and said, "What's your name?" She stated, "Officer Anderson." He turned to her with a very rude look, his demeanor becoming aggressive and said, "Is that what you call yourself? 'Officer'?" She stated, "Sir, I am an officer" and I said "She is an officer. It would be best if you left for the day." She walked him out to the lobby door, all the time he was mumbling under his breath to her about having no right to be an officer. Officer Anderson then reported as he was walking out of the lobby he wife was coming in the door, yelling "I want to speak to the manager" and he pushed her out stating, "I handled it." I phoned Ms. Naylor immediately after the situation to inform her of the situation. Mr. Lopez approached me shortly after stated anytime the man has been in here, he always comes up to him and "is trying to start something." Mr. Lopez said it's nothing in particular, he just always wants to argue with him about anything, and approached him specifically if he sees him behind the desk.

(After he phoned the PIC at Main, Traci Montri, they gave their names as Keith Kendrick and Angel Gonzalez, phone number 419.322.1931.)

Due to the aggressive behavior, verbal abuse, and blatant disregard for Officer Anderson's authority, these two are potentially dangerous for future interactions with staff, security and possibly other patrons.

Incident Information: On Monday 5/21/12 Bachaar Khairvddin placed a 911 call on our public telephone (as identified by attached photo). I was notified by the police that a 911 call was placed by our phones. We contacted Security asking that a camera may have identified the suspect. Spoke with Jeff Sabo and asked that we speak to parent as mother and child regularly patronize our branch. Jeff agreed. We spoke with mother alerting her to the severity of the offense. We also cautioned that if this happened again we would need to contact Security and Bachaar could be banned for 1 year from the library. He is not permitted to use our public telephone. Mother chose to ban Bachaar from using the library for 2 weeks.

Incident Information: On the day ant time stated a TPD Officer entered the library stating there had been an alarm that went off from this location. TPD dispatch informed him that it was not a 911 hang up call but had to have come from a panic button. This officer Sgt. Tracy and the manager asked the other employees if there was anything wrong or if a button had been hit by accident. All employees stated no one hit a button and that everything was fine. I informed dispatch of the incident and dispatch officer Veronica stated they received no indication of an alarm going off at Lagrange library.

Habitec called at approximately 1545 and talked to the manager (Lisa Green) they informed her that one of the remote panic buttons was pushed from this location. (Not sure if it was from the front desk or the desk in back.)

In these instances where a panic alarm goes off, Habitec does not call the library but, TPD is notified immediately so they can respond to the emergency.

Incident Information: A young boy came in unattended. He was running around, banging on computers, pulling items from pick-up shelf. He told Denise Noel, clerk, he was 5 years old, and he lived on Yondota. He said his name was "Mesyo" (he spelled it) Hubbard. He also said his mother's name is Victoria Hubbard. He gave us a phone number (419.764.7419). I called the number and left a voice mail telling of the situation. The voice mail message did not identify anyone, so I don't know if it was indeed his phone number. I sent a note home with child saying he should be accompanied while at the library.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called to the door desk by unit 17 (Officer Cessna). When I got to the door desk unit 17 told me that a patron reported the sound of breaking CD cases coming from the accessibility stall in the first floor men's restroom.

When I got to the first floor mens restroom; I saw unit 13 (Officer Gaines) searching the suspect (Mr. Martinez) for CDs. By the time we were on scene; the suspect appeared to be the only one in the restroom. The suspect did not have DVDs on his person. Suspect also did not mention anything about DVD cases being in the stall that he admitted to coming out of. I then went into the accessibility stall and found five DVD cases on the floor. Suspect did tell me that he has some psychological issues and a tendency to forget things.

I then asked the suspect to follow me to the DT room. Once in DT I asked the suspect if he had ever had any incidences in the library before. He stated that he had not been in trouble with us before. The only incident he had was when he fell off his mobility cart on the second floor (This incident is on file in iTrack). He also stated that he is not allowed to check DVDs out because of his fines.

I then told the suspect that I will write the report as suspicious activity; however, he may receive a ban letter for theft. I told him that it doesn't look good that he can't check out DVDs, and was searched for DVDs and didn't say anything about the empty DVD cases in the restroom.

The suspect agreed with me. We (The suspect and I) talked about the appeals process, and the letter he may or may not receive in the mail. We thanked the suspect for his co-operation then released him from DT. Suspect then continued to use the library.

Incident Information: On the occurred date and time, received a report of a couple arguing/fighting out front and that the male had hit the female. I responded to the north bike rack where the male was yelling at the female. I escorted Mr. Reid (Aggressor) to the detention room while TPD, Ofc. Fane & Molitoris interviewed Ms. Chong. Ms. Chong stated that Mr. Reid did not assault her physically, just verbally and it was just an argument. She requested that we inform him to stay away from her outside of the library as well.

This is the 2nd incident where they have both been told yelling and cursing at each other on library property will not be tolerated. Both were informed to stay off library property and could possibly be banned for up to Six (6) Months.

Incident Information: Attached please find various accounts of the incident which occurred at Holland Branch on 5/31/2012 involving a theft suspect and the Holland Police Department. I was not present at the time of the incident, but gathered information from the PIC, Janice Sherman as well as from the staff members who saw some aspect, and patrons who witnessed all or part of the incident. After discussing the incident with T-LCPL Head of Security Jeff Sabo, my understanding is that an off duty HPD officer attempted to apprehended a theft suspect of stealing Boots from nearby Wal-Mart. The suspect would not cooperate and a chase ensued beginning in the library, through the lobby where a library patron was knocked into; out the front door, knocking down the concrete ashtray and onto the front lawn where the suspect and officer struggled. The suspect broke free from the struggle and ran off across Strawberry Acres Park. In the meantime, additional officers came to assist explaining the patron claims that guns were drawn. The suspect was apprehended shortly thereafter near the Post Office on Angola Road. Addition things to note: Just before the incident in the library, apparently the suspect had approached at least 2 patrons in the parking lot asking to use their cell phones and or for a ride. A few patrons also made comments about the suspect dropping a cell phone described as "an old one with antennae" and that a patron picked it up off the ground and placed it on a table or counter.

Incident Information: On 6/1/12 at approximately 1140 hours I observed the suspect, Kareem V. Roberts Jr., sitting at computer # 12. I observed that Kareem had his monitor turned so that I could not see what he was looking at without being directly behind him. I observed that Kareem put his left hand down his pants several times. At one point when Kareem had his hand down his pants, it appeared that he had started to stroke himself. When I approached Kareem I did not see anything inappropriate displayed on his computer and I pulled him aside. I asked Kareem what he was doing with his hand down his pants. Kareem advised that he always has his hands down his pants, and that all he was doing was scratching himself. I advised Kareem that it appeared that he was doing more than just scratching himself. I advised him if that was all to stop doing it. While on patrol outside, I observed through the quiet study room window, Kareem look around the library. Kareem then clicked on a tab in his open windows display. I observed what appeared to be a woman nude from the waist up. I came inside and approached Kareem again. I pulled Kareem into the meeting room and asked him what I saw on the computer. He advised that it was his YouTube account. I explained to him what I saw on the computer and the inappropriate behavior he has been displaying inside the library. Kareem stated that he was not looking at anything inappropriate. I advised Kareem that he would be banned for seven days. Kareem left the library without further incident.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated on this report this officer was patrolling around the South branch library inside the premises. I witnessed a man approach a woman with three children at the computer and was whispering aggressively to her. I assessed the situation and watched it start to escalate I then told the gentleman that whatever situation that they may have needs to be taken care of out of the library and at a different location. The gentleman then told me he only wants to see his child and that she is keeping the child from him. The gentleman then called the police three times. I then called dispatch and requested for another officer on scene. Lt. Gankosky arrived, shortly before the police arrived. When TPD arrived, they talked to the father of the child and simply told him if they have shared custody legally the police can not just take a child away from their parent. They also told them they have to go through family court for custody procedures. The father advised to the TPD officers maybe if he had gotten a little more violent they would have on scene more promptly. The father then left the scene along with TPD. Shortly after approximately 5 minutes the father of the child cam back into the library and tapped on the mothers shoulder saying "she got what she asked for coming for her." Lt. Gankosky and I then escorted the gentleman out of the library. Both parties left without further incident. Suspect is now banned from the library for approximately six months.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated above; I (John Molitoris) was doing a shift at the door desk when the patron (Corey Knowles Sr.) approached me and said he was having some chest pain. I proceeded to ask the patron what the severity of the pain was. The patron said it hurt fairly badly and asked for assistance in getting an ambulance to the location. I radioed to dispatch for an emergency squad to come out and directed the patron to sit down so as to not exert himself. Sergeant Mark Tracy arrived to assist and keep an eye out for the emergency squad to arrive. The emergency squad arrived within minutes and proceeded to evaluate the patron. The emergency squad then transported the patron for further evaluation.

Incident Information: Deb ? was on cell phone in teen area in loud conversation, discussion became louder and heated. The Deb's voice and anger level increased. Upon approaching her, she became upset, continued to yell at person on phone, gathered some of her belongings and went out of the library. Shortly thereafter she was pacing across the front walkway, loudly yelling into her cell phone, using profanity. Several patrons complained of feeling comfortable to come in and to go out of the building because of her erratic behavior. When I attempted to approach Deb to ask her to leave, I had difficulty getting her attention, she continued to pace and yell. I called 911 for assistance. Deb came back into the branch to collect her belongings and was using profanity. librarian Marcia Kreinbrink told her she had to leave. She left the building, but it is my understanding that another patron called 911 because apparently Deb was arguing with another person who was parked near her vehicle. Another patron alerted staff that an argument was taking place in the parking lot.

Two police officers responded. They told Deb to leave for the rest of the day. Library Behavior guidelines state that this behavior results in a 7 day ban from libraries.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated above I (John Molitoris) responded to a call from the officer at the door desk. The officer advised me that a patron had seen someone on the benches at the bus stop drinking an alcoholic beverage. I went out and looked for someone fitting the description of a white male, wearing a black shirt and black shorts. I didn't find anyone fitting that description and was approached by another patron as I resumed my patrol of Sector One. This time I was informed that the gentleman sitting at the bench with the alcohol was wearing the same clothing in the description, but was a black male. I approached this man and the suspect (Patrick Murdock) and inquired about the drinks they had. The gentleman fitting the description did not have an alcoholic beverage beneath him but the suspect did. I told both men to follow me inside, the gentleman wearing the black refused to do so and crossed the street so I could not pursue. The suspect was cooperative and when taken to the DT room explained to myself and Lieutenant Gankowsky that his friend had switched the drinks out beneath them before I arrived to question them about what they were drinking. We sent the suspect on his way and advised him that his testimony to us would be included in the report and that he may or may not receive a ban letter in the mail. He was told that if he receives one he may appeal it as per his testimony to myself and Lieutenant Gankowsky. The suspect was escorted out and left without any further incident.

I advised Elizabeth that I was going to stop Alfred before he got into the library and notify him that he is banned for 7 days. Incident Information: on the above date and time, I officer Anderson observed a patron irate and aggressive with the Library staff. As I approached, the female who was speaking to the library staff sat down in the childrens area next to this librarian. The patron who we have now identified as Javon M. Murphy was on her cell phone speaking loud enough that she was disruptive to the patrons around her. The librarian informed me that she wanted Ms. Murphy to take her call to the lobby. Ms. Murphy's reply was "Iam on the damn phone with my probation officer and I am trying to get these damn library people to sign my shit so i can turn it in to my probation officer why do I have to go to the lobby I aint done anything wrong what can you tell me that I done". Ms. Murphy was yelling at me as she said this. She gained the attention of everyone in this area. My response to Ms. Murphy was that she was being disruptive, the language she was using was unacceptable and that her aggressive nature was not tolerated in the library and originally this was why she was being asked to step to the lobby but now it was because of the way she was speaking to meand that this time we could finish our conversation in the lobby. Ms. Murphy at this time stepped toward me in what I consider my personal space. I stepped back trying to gain distance. I then told Ms. Murphy that there would be no more discussion that she would be leaving the library at this exact moment. Ms. Murphy stated the following, "you aint nothing but a racist cunt and I am going to take your picture and post that shit every where I am on probation and I am just trying to find a job and that bitch Librarian just didn't want to help me and you are sticking up for that bitch like shes your mama." Ms. Murphy continued with this language into the parking lot where she turned around to me and stated, "What are you looking at bitch ima smack some bitches with my purse." When I recieved no response I called dispatch who informed me that they would send Assistant Chief Ervin. As I was walking out the library staff informed me that the seen Ms. Murphy come back into the library and take pictures of them (staff). Chief Ervin at this time stated that he did see Ms. Murphy come from the lobby and enter her vehicle. He was unaware that she was involved in the situation that had just occured. Per request of the library staff, they wanted this patron to be placed on the ban list. The librarian who had interaction with her informed me that Ms. Murphy was very aggressive towards her. She also stated that the services Ms. Murphy requested was something Library staff was unable to perform.

Incident Information: At approximetly 3:20pm the witnesses came into the library and reported to me a man was approaching them outside and asked "how old are you guys?" They felt uncomfortable so they attempted to enter the library. The man followed them towards the door and asked if they "know Phil." They said "No" and he said "yes you too!" and "I'll be waiting right here when you come out." Talena Horton and I asked the girls to stay inside and approached the man, who was seated on the bench, that the girls described. He got up to leave and asked if he had said anything to the girls, he stated he asked, if they knew Phil! I told him they told not and he said he was leaving. Debbie Digennaro was notified, and we took a statement and alerted talia's father who was in the branch. We walked the girls to their vehicle, and the suspect came around the side of the building to the bike rake where his bike was parked deb digennaro spoke with him and questioned his intentions he said, "dont' worry, I won't come back to your library again!!"- And left with no further incident.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report this officer was patrolling outside the south branch library. I observed a large number of patrons outside talking to each other. One of the patrons came inside and exchanged a few words (which are unknown) with Yusuf Rahim. I approached Yusuf and told him not to do anything on library property or he will be detained. He responded back to me saying "these are my people". The group of Patrons then walked across the street, then the fights started breaking out. I called for dispatch and requested back up and to notify TPD of the situation. By the time TPD, and back up arrived on scene the fight was broken up and patrons went separate ways. TPD and Unit 105 (Lt. Gankosky) had left the scene without anymore incident. Approximately twenty (20) minutes later Rahim and Yusuf were walking down Orchard heading west to the library I told them from across the street not to come on our property with the weapons (Broom stick, crow bar) they had. Yusuf ignored my request came to the library parking lot taunting four patrons. Unit 105 then grabbed Yusuf and detained him, TPD then arrived back on scene but released Yusuf. Situation was neutralized for the moment. All units left without further incident. Ten (10) Minutes later Yusuf and Iman were walking back on Orchard heading west towards the library. When they reached the intersection I witnessed a gun being exchanged between Yusuf and Iman, I then told them again they are not allowed on our property or they will be arrested this time for bringing weapons on the premises. They were yelling back at the four patrons across the street. Yusuf and Iman did not cross Broadway this time. They were telling the other patrons to meet them in the parking lot. Unit 105 had then arrived on scene and TPD was notified again of the situation. Unit 105 and myself witnessed one of the brothers carrying a PVC pipe, and a knife. The four unknown patrons went across the street in the parking lot of Broadway mini mart, and another fight broke out. They had been fighting for about five (5) minutes before TPD arrived on scene and detained Yusuf. Rahim who had ran but was later detained by TPD. Suspects were taken without further incident. Suspect's will be banned from the library for one (1) years time.

Incident Information: On 6/19/12 at approx. 1410 hours Denise notified me that Jenny the page, had found a broken DVD case while putting books on the shelf. The DVD was wrestle Mania XXVII, Barcode # 0001511139, 2- disc set. I went and asked Jenny where she found the DVD case at. Jenny advised that she found the DVD case in the 700 section of the non-fiction book shelves. Approx. 45 minutes earlier I observed the suspect Jamri L. Scott in the same section of the book shelf looking an item.

I went and found Jamari sitting in a chair near the fire place. I advised Jamari about the found DVD case and that I had seen him in the area earlier. I asked Jamari if he could show me what was in his pockets. Jamari pulled the items out of this left side front and rear pockets and then started to pull items out of this front right pocket. I observed that Jamari was fishing around in his pocket trying to move his hand around an object in his pocket that he did not want to show me. I asked Jamari what was the item in his pocket that he was not pulling out. Jamari, in response to my question, pulled out the item. The item was the stolen DVD. I called dispatch and advised them of the situation. I pulled Jamari aside into the meeting room. I got all the information from him. Jamari advised that there was only 1 DVD in the case when he broke it. I advised Jamari that the clerks would not put a DVD back onto the shelf if there was only 1 DVD in a 2 DVD set. Jamari insisted that there was only 1 DVD in the case. I later found Disc 1 under the chair he was sitting in. I contacted dispatch about sending a 66 unit or TPD to the branch. A 66 unit was not working at the time of the incident.

I explained to Jamari that he was going to be banned for 1 year for the theft. That he would be receiving a letter in the mail in a few weeks. I advised Jamari if he does not receive a letter to conat the main branch security. Jamari was released and left the library with his younger brother and sister without further incident.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called by the manager of the Toledo Heights Branch (Mrs. Kynard). The manager requested I speak to a patron (Mr. Jackson). When I arrived on scene at Toledo Heights; the manager pointed out the suspect who had been doing unusual things in the library. The suspect ripped the labels off some of the books saying that the labels were upside down.

He has also been staring at some of the patrons and staff; making them feel uncomfortable. Mr. Jackson is suspected of having a cognitive disability after putting a potato in the toilet of the Men's restroom.

I approached the suspect and asked him to speak with me in the foyer. Once in the foyer I asked the suspect for his information then told him that he can't be pulling labels off of books.

The suspect became very upset and started walking outside. I told the suspect that he will be banned from all of the Toledo-Lucas County Public Libraries for a year. Suspect stated that he didn't care. I then followed the suspect off of library property.

On the way to the edge of the property the suspect became very upset. The suspect told me to take my belt off so we could fight. He then asked what bar I go to, told me he goes to the boulevard, and to meet him there at 11:00 to fight. I told the suspect that I was following him to make sure he made it off of the property safe and sound. Suspect then left the library without further incident.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was on patrol when I responded to a call from S/O Pam Johnson to come to the front door desk. A woman, Kayla Miller, informed me that while she was outside, a man asked her if she wanted to smoke some pot and then he asked her for a sexual favor in exchange for a hundred dollars. I asked Ms. Miller if he was still on the property and she told me he just walked passed in front of the library. S/O Fane assisted me in going outside and finding the man, James T. Moore III. When we approached Mr. Moore, S/O Fane asked him to come inside and asked if he had been talking to a young girl earlier; Mr. Moore explained that, "She was doing all that stuff," and became irate.

He was combative as S/O Fane and I escorted him into the detention room of the library. Upon further questioning I noticed he had a "joint" in his hand, I asked him what it was and he told me it was tobacco; I then asked him if I could see it. When he handed it to me I smelled it and, from my experience as a police officer, it smelled like marijuana. I informed Mr. Moore that it smelled like marijuana and he admitted to me that it was marijuana. S/O Fane then searched him and placed him in handcuffs. While Mr. Moore was being put in handcuffs, he became physically combative, but he was subdued. Toledo police were called and Officer Daniels arrived, took Mr. Moore's information and took him into custody. There was no further incident.

Incident Information: On date and time stated above while on a perimeter check, I discovered a bullet laying on the ground near the steps of the staff exit doors. I called down to dispatch and requested a camera review of camera 3 to see if anything was caught. Dispatcher Officer Steve Nichpor called to inform me that the only kids to walk pass that area were a group of kids who looked to be 10-12 years old. A description of the kids was given and I located them on the computers. This officer then talked to the group of kids who said they had saw the bullet laying on the ground when they walked in, I notified the manager Julie Bursten of the situation and a report was made. I also informed the manager about a patron who I had been dealing with the last couple of days, who I thought could be the suspect. The patron was in the library during the time I had found the bullet, but had left before I could make contact with him.

Incident Information: Keyandre was observed looking through patron reserves by Sue Pohlman (Clerical staff). She approached him at checkout & caught him appearing to check out another patrons reserve.

Sue informed Mgr. I approached Keyandre & explained that this was not our procedure. He was not permitted to go through other patron reserves & then take the DVD this was stealing library property. Because of his handicap I felt he did not quite understand. he said he would not do this again. I asked him if he had anything in his backpack that was not checked out. He pulled out a DVD that was another patrons that was not cychecked out. I explained to him that he was not to do this again or he would be asked to leave the library and not be able to come to ours or any branch for 1 year.

Contacted Jeff Sabo- He advised that the situation was handled properly & a 1 year ban would be appropriate if he was caught again. He also wanted to be sure he was not using his handicap as a defence. I assured him that he was not.

Incident Information: On the stated date and time I, Officer Anderson was called to the front doors by Librarian Beth Tuohy. Mrs. Tuohy stated that I needed to make sure that the patron who had just walked out made it of the Library property because he was harassing staff. I walked outside and I observed this patron walking towards the employee parking lot. This patron who we now know as Patrick Newton turned towards me and stated "I'm out of here". I asked Mr. Patrick if he wanted to tell me what was going on. Mr. Patrick stated "All I did was ask those workers if I could get on the Internet and the one told me no, I have an Internet card so I don't know what her problem is. I go to Main and South, no one ever tells me no. I don't need to be here, so I'm out". I informed Mr. Patrick that the Librarians have policies and procedures that they have to follow regarding the Internet and the usage of patrons library cards. I also informed Mr. Patrick that I am unaware of the exact conversation that he and the Library staff had inside but he would most likely receive a ban letter in the mail. Mr. Patrick replied "thats coo".

A message was present on the patron's account asking for ID to verify his identity since he had given conflicting information in the past. I asked the patron for his ID which he didn't have. I remembered having a similar conversation with him in the past although the note on his card was from Kent branch. When I explained we needed to see his ID he told me to "fuck myself, bitch". This was said repeatedly as he walked out the door. - BLT

Incident Information: On the stated date and time I, Officer Anderson was approached by a juvenile stating his bike was stolen. This juvenile who we now know as Devin Erd, stated three out of five bikes that him and his cousins rode to the library were stolen from the libraries bike rack. Devin stated that he arrived at the library at 1230. Devin also stated that he did not notice the bikes missing until 1615. Devin notified his father who later arrived informing me that he found the bikes and there was an altercation between him and the parents of the suspect who stole the bikes. I informed Devin's father, who refused to give his name, that this is now a matter for his local police department. Devin's father apologized for his demeanor when he first arrived, which was irate but stated he was very upset. I acknowledged the apology and I told him that I would finish the report for the stolen bikes before my shift ended. I also informed the father that our dispatcher would take over with reviewing the camera footage and I gave him the number for security. Incident Information: On the day and time stated while on patrol, library worker Amnity Fuleky approached me and stated that she had seen a woman leave the library that may have books in the bottom of the stroller that she was pushing. I proceeded to the parking lot where I stopped the woman and asked if I could look in the stroller. She stated "yes you can look". I looked and seen three books in the bottom of the stroller. At that moment she became very surprised and said, "Oh, I didn't put those in there, that must've been my son when we were standing by the drinking fountain he must have must have put the books in the bottom of the stroller while I was not looking". She stated she had just returned about 16 books and had told a librarian that she wouldn't be checking anything more today. I took her personal information and left her go.

The suspect was observed by the library staff member browsing and removing items from a top shelf in the adult section of the library. The books found in the stroller were adult books and in no way could have been reached by her toddler son (approx. 2 years old). Those books are also not found anywhere near the children's area.

There is also a witness statement attached to this report.

Incident Information: Clerk, Marcia Seguire who was visibly upset came to Circ. Supervisor Janice Sherman for help with a patron who was angry and had cursed at her. Janice went to talk with the patron who was angry because of fees and collection costs on her 17 year old son Christian Michael McManus' card # DG08D. Janice remained calm and tried to explain to the woman that the fees on her son's record were not for fines – but for lost materials and collections fees. Janice tried to work with her but the woman talked around in circles and appeared to not be listening. I stepped in to assist Janice and was not successful in calming her either. She insisted that our staff was incompetent, that we had false advertizing in our "Read Off your Fines signs", and that we were trying to get money from her. She said she never got any notices, but also stated that she had moved. She continued arguing, raising her voice and ranting that she was not going to pay the fines. She went on saying that we never told them about their fines; that we let her son check out after the fines were accrued; that we allowed his brother to do the same thing; she said that she asked us to remove her other child's card so he couldn't borrow anymore, and then we allowed his father to check out things on his brother's card etc.

I told her that we were not getting anywhere and that as the signing parent she was responsible for the materials borrowed by her children. She said "I am not going to pay anything" something about you and your staff are money grubbing and "I am going to make a scene." She called out to her children and headed toward the front door. She continued her tirade, with her teenage son, as they exited. (Please note this was happening at the same time that a preschool storytime session was ending and families were entering and exiting the building.) Librarians heard her continue to use abusive language as she exited (see attached Unusual Occurrence Reports).

Patricia returned to the library approximately 45 minutes later, with a young girl. I explained that her outburst and language were inappropriate for the library and hat she'd have to leave the library. She said "I didn't say nothing wrong all I said was damn and I'm not going anywhere. I'm looking for my daughters tutor." She walked away mumbling. I called TLCPL Security for assistance. The woman came to me and said "you can't tell me what I can & can't do. – you allow people to fight in the library." She went on describing an incident which took place quite some time ago where 2 adults had a physical altercation in the branch and she and her daughter witnessed it; she said she saw them back in the library the next week, etc. I said I am not going to talk with you about other people's behavior- I'm talking about yours and you need to leave now. She did continuing to rant on her way out of the door. She lingered a bit on the entry sidewalk. Holland Police Department Officer Sturm responded to a call that TLCPL Security had sent out. She was gone by his arrival. I explained what had happened and he suggested calling if/when she entered the building again.

Note the other children whose cards she referenced include: Christian Micheal McManus DG08D; Anthony Erik Foulk, DNDLR; and Kayla Ann Keister DNDLS.

Incident Information: On 6/28/12 at approx. 1355 hours I went outside the front doors and observed a black male subject getting on his bike after he left the library. There was another bike laying in the bike rack next to him. I went inside the library and watched the security cameras. When the camera came to the bike rack, I observed that the male suspect was gone and had stolen the bike. The owner of the bike did not have a lock for the bike. I advised the owner several times prior to the theft, that he needed to have a lock for his bike. When the bike was stolen I advised dispatch of the situation and asked for pictures of the suspect. I advised the victim, Thomas and his older brother of the theft.

The suspect was sitting at express computer from approx.1335 to 1350.

Incident Information: Custodian Leonard Contreras came in the buidling and told me that a man Jason Brown locked his bicycle to the railing outside the main entrance doors. Leonard told me that he told Jason that he had to put his bike at the bike rack and Jason told him he can park where ever he wanted to. A few minutes later Leonard approached me and told me that he felt threatened by Jason. i located Jason by the dvds and he was walking toward the front to checkout. I told the supervisor Barb Travino what had happened. Barb and I asked Jason if we could have a talk with him about the incident. Jason complied but becasme very defensive, said he felt threatened and wanted to file a complaint on Leonard. Jason aslo demanded that he see a policy or paperwork on why he can't lock his bicycle by the front door. Both Barb and I tried to explain that there is abike rack and he could lock his bike there. Jason said that the bike is his only transportation and that the bike rack was to far for him to keep his eye on his bike. I told him that the only bikes that have been taken are the ones that have been left unlcoked. Jason told me that people have been going around with bolt cutters staling bikes. I told him that has never happend here. Barb told him that was getting a new bike rack to better accommodate the patrons. Jason said he was going to file a complaint, he checked out and left. At 1145 Barb told me that Jason called 5 times saying that he sent e-mails to our superiors about the complaint and that he could not find a policy on the library web site about why he couldn't lock his bike by the main entrance. Jason also smelled of alcohol. Jason was warned at least 2 other times before about his bike. I warned him before locking his bike by the front door and clerk Diane Irons for carrying his bike into the library on his shoulder. See Leonard's statement attached for further information on this incident.

Incident Information: On the day and time stated, I Sgt. Tracy and Officer Anderson were dispatched to the first floor restrooms where a female was yelling loudly and telling the dispatch officer to stay the fuck out of her business. I Sgt. Tracy then tried to talk with the subject to get her to calm down and explain to me what was going on. The subject stated she was in the restroom correcting her younger sister. She also stated that, "If my sister needs correcting I'm gonna do it and you guys need to stay the fuck out of my goddam business". At that moment, I asked her to calm down one last time the suspect refused, I then grabbed the suspect and she was then handcuffed. While taking her to the DT room she was yelling very loudly that this was bullshit and and she can do whatever she wanted to do and everyone else needs to stay out my fucking business. Once in the DT room I Sgt. Tracy and Officer Anderson tried talking to her to get her information and she did not want to cooperate with us. TPD was then called and arrived at the scene. I talked to A. Fish 2478 and Officer 320 about what happened. TPD then questioned the juvenile and got her personal information. The suspect was then arrested and taken to JDC. No further.

Incident Information: While in Reynolds corners branch I was approached by a librarian who said there was a patron at the desk who felt uncomfortable after being approached by another patron. I approached the suspect (Mr. Crawford) and talked to him about not approaching other patrons. I told the suspect to just be aware that not everyone is comfortable talking with people they don't know.

I then returned to the victim and her mother to ask if she just wanted me to talk to the suspect, ask him to leave for the day, or ban him for six months for harassment. Victim didn't seem to care. The librarians and I decided to ask him to leave for the day.

I then return to the suspect and asked for his information, told him to stay out for the day, and that if he returns he may be charged with criminal trespass. Suspect then left without further incident.

Incident Information: while on patrol I was approached by victim (Samuel Perkins). Victim stated that the suspect (Amber Holliker) threatened him. Victim and suspect have had a long history of on and off relationship. I spoke with the victim and told him to stay away from her and to let us know if she is bothering him anymore.

I then found the suspect outside and talked with her as well. I told the suspect to stay away from him, and that if he is bothering her to come see the security staff. I also told her that she may be banned from the library for harassment. She will get a letter in the mail with all the information.

Both patrons left the library property without further incident.

Incident Information: On the above date and time I, Officer Anderson was informed from an off duty Officer that his child was threatened by a patron. The patron who we now know as Lamarcus Anderson stated to the child "what the fuck are you all looking at, I will smack the fuck out of you if you look at me again." The child then informed his father of the situation and the father immediately brought this to my attention. Myself and Captain Fisher escorted Ms. Anderson to the DT room to hear her side of the story. Ms. Anderson denied saying this to the child and responded that her comments were directed to the person who she was on the phone with. Incident Information: suspect walked up to the SRC desk and asked if this is where he would get voting papers. He signed up for the adult SRC and asked Brianna if she would like his private phone number. He started a discussion about investments. Brianna noticed him playing with his belts. He tapped brianna's head with a rallys coupon.

I noticed that he had been at the desk an unusual amount of time. Approached suspect asked him if I could help him he replied no and persisted in wanting to stay I affirmed with him that I was the manager and unless he did not need anything further that the teens needed to return to work. When he was persistant about wanting to stay and talk with them I asked him to leave. he left the library.

After he left, the teens filled me in about the conversation I had suggested to them that if this ever happened again feel free to come to the reference desk and alert us. It was nothing they did incorrectly but he had predator type behavior.

Looked him up on lucas county sex offender sherrif's website. did not see him listed.

Incident Information: Our regular customer came in to pick up his holds, and was at the customer service desk checking out, when a woman came in shouting about the dog in his car. She said, "Who's the idiot with the shih tzu in a blue Dodge with no windows open? Fucking idiot" I started to go around quietly asking customers if they'd left a dog in their car, but one of the staff members heard and said she knew it was Mr. Rose and that he was on his way out. By this time there were two more women yelling about the dog, and they cornered Mr. Rose (who is elderly) and actually blocked his path out the door. They all went out into the parking lot, where the women continued shouting at Mr. Rose and taking cell phone pictures of his car and his dog. He told them, "I don't want to hear it" and got in his car. His car actually did have windows left open for the dog. There was a minute where the women were not going to allow him to pull out of the parking spot. They stood behind it and said "You're not going anywhere" and "The cops are on their way". Then the women did move out of the way when they saw me coming out to talk with them, and Mr. Rose pulled out and left.

Incident Information: On date and time stated above, a patron entered the West Toledo Branch saying there is an incident about to take place out in the parking lot. Upon my arrival both the suspects and victims were yelling at one another just to the left of the entrance. Victim (Mr. Hawkins) was yelling loudly at suspect #1 (Ms. Scheanwald) "did you call my daughter or me an asshole?". Both the suspects denied called Mr. Hawkins or his daughter that. At that point Mr. Hawkins stated "we saw you guys get out of your car and lip to one another asshole". This officer then stepped between both parties and separated them. I asked Mr. Hawkins what the problems was. Mr. Hawkins then explained that Ms. Scheanwald had cut them off at the entrance coming into the library parking lot. As they parked he saw her lip to her mother assholes. Mr. Hawkins calmed down and stood near the handicap ramp.

This officer then went to Ms. Scheanwald to see what she had to say about the incident. Ms. Scheanwald denied called anybody an asshole and that her mom her and her mom were talking about another person. Suspect 2 (Ms. Esping) stated she just wanted to return a book and leave. As this officer was still talking to Ms. Scheanwald, suspect 2 walked past Mr. Hawkins and witness 2 (Shirley Greenwade) and called Mr. Hawkins a degenerate and that she would pray for him. As this officer then went to deal with the issue Ms. Scheanwald took it upon herself to call Mr. Hawkin's daughter (Torri Nelson) a "fucking asshole" and "you guys need to grow up". Ms. Scheanwald then called Mr. Hawkins an asshole.

This officer had already gathered the 2 suspects information and informed them to get into their car and leave the property. As they were getting into the car and driving away they continued to say stuff towards both Mr. Hawkins and his daughter. Both Mr. Hawkins and hi daughter apologized numerous times for both this officer and witness 1. Mr. Hawkins understood it's a library and he shouldn't lose his temper but didn't like being called an asshole or a degenerate by people he doesn't know or want to know. I gathered Mr. Hawkins information along with his daughters and informed them its for my report since the incident took place on library property, and that a letter might be sent to their house letting them know if they received a suspension from the library. Mr. Hawkins once again upon leaving the library apologized to the staff about the incident.

This officer called down to dispatch for a review of camera 1 to see if the incident was caught on tape, Incident was on tape and they would be saving it if we wanted it. While typing up this report I had a few patrons come up to me saying they were hesitant to walk out of the library while the altercation took place.

Incident Information: On said time and date I noticed Mr. Christopher D. Carter (suspect) entered the building. I then informed him he was ban and needed to leave, I was then informed by Officer Cessna that the suspect may have warrant for arrest. So I asked suspect to wait so I could confirm some information. I then took custody of the suspect and detained him until TPD arrived. Off. Vasquez arrested suspect for criminal trespassing and outstanding warrants. No other problems occurred.

Incident Information: Jasmine and Delilah, out two volunteers through the YWCA were organizing our book sale since there was no Summer Reading Club work to be done. As they were clearing off the top shelf, they tipped a box that contained some metal bookends. Some of the bookends fell off the shelf and hit Jasmine on the shoulder. The girls had been laughing while they were working in the room so when I heard the clatter and I thought I heard more laughing, I didn't pay any attention. However, Margie realized that jasmine was crying and was hurt. Margie asked if she needed anything but Jasmine said "No". At this time, Margie came to get me and proceeded to tell me what happened. When I went back to the room I asked Jasmine if she was cut and if she would like an ice pack. She showed me her shoulder which was only a little red (possibly partially because she had been rubbing it) but there were no cuts. She said that she would like an ice pack, so I went to the break room to put ice in a bag and brought it to her to put on her shoulder.

Incident Information: Rebecca Pappas was using a computer. A librarian overheard, her daughter, Athena Mitsopoulos, repeatedly asked she could have a bracelet from the gift shop. Ms. Pappas loudly replied no. Wendy Ponder had noticed earlier that 2 other bracelets were missing. As Ms. Pappas and Athena were leaving, she noticed that a silver bracelet that had previously been on display was on Athena's wrist. She came to my office to report this incident to me. As we came out of my office, we noticed that they were leaving. We followed them to their van. Athena was in the van and Ms. Mitsopoulos was getting into the van. Wendy and I noticed the bracelet on her wrist. I asked Ms. Mitsopoulos if she paid for the bracelet. She said that she didn't know that Athena had it, and that Athena thought that she has paid for it. She gave me the bracelet. She returned to the library and asked if she could buy the bracelet, and said that Athena said that it cost $3.00. Wendy said no, because there was not price tag on the bracelet. She later called Wendy Grey and found out that the price for the bracelet was $6.95.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was on patrol when I was called to the first floor men's restroom for a possible hurt and bleeding patron. When I arrived to the restroom, I saw a teenage boy with blood on his hands and a band-aid over his right eyebrow. I asked him if he could wash off his hands and clean them. I then asked him what happened; he told me that he was "speed walking" to catch up with his friend, slipped and fell, hit his head on the end of the book case. When he hit his head, he told me that his glasses frame broke cutting his eyebrow open. I gathered his information and, being a juvenile, I wrote down his parent's/guardian's contact information as well. There was no further incident.

Details: Called mother and spoke with her regarding her sons cut to his eye. She said not to call ambulance and that she was going to be down to pick him up and provide further treatment if necessary. Band-aid was given to victim.

Incident Information: On 7/14/12 at approximately 1350 hrs I was standing next to a bookshelf in the children's area watching the Internet computers. I observed that Rhonda Brown was sitting at computer #1 and her 14 year old daughter was sitting at computer #2. Rhonda had started to make a phone call. I approached Rhonda and advised her that she had to use her cell phone away from the computer. Rhonda got up from the computer and took her phone call outside. Rhonda came back inside the library and sat down at her computer.

Approximately 10-15 minutes later while standing next to a bookshelf in the children's area, I observed Rhonda staring at me over the computer monitor. Approximately a few minutes later Rhonda yelled "stop it" to me. I asked Rhonda "what?", and she yelled "stop it" again. I approached Rhonda and asked her if she had a problem with me. Rhonda advised that I was staring at her in a creepy/harassment manner. I advised Rhonda that I was not staring at her and that I was doing my job. Rhonda stated that I was not doing my job and that I was staring at her due to the fact that I did not like the fact that she had used her phone for an emergency phone call and telling her to go outside. I advised Rhonda again that I was not staring at her and that she could leave the library. Rhonda continued to yell and use profane language at me and made a scene in front of approximately 14 people that were inside the library. I advised Rhonda that she had to leave. I started toward the back room to contact dispatch when I heard her tell her children that they needed to check their items out because they were leaving this fucking place. I radioed dispatch and advised them that I had an irate patron in the library and needed Unit 66. As Rhonda walked past me near the front of the entrance she stated to me that she was going to call the police on me and that I was a fucking liar. I advised Rhonda to go ahead and call the police.

As I was inside the library, I observed Rhonda standing just outside the front doors of the library on the phone with the 911 dispatchers. I observed several patrons giving me a concerned look as they entered the library. At this I exited the library, Rhonda started to yell at me to go back inside the library and that the 911 dispatcher was telling her to tell me. I asked Rhonda if I could speak with the dispatcher. Rhonda advised me that I could not use her fucking phone. I told Rhonda then that I was not going to go back inside the library and that this is the property that I patrol and protect. Rhonda then moved to her car with her children. When Rhonda hung up with the 911 dispatcher, she advised me that I was going to fucking jail because I had tried to grab her in front of her kids. I advised Rhonda that at no time did I try to grab her. Rhonda continued to yell and use profane language towards me. Rhonda advised that she knows the East Side and that she knew how to get the cops here fast. During this confrontation patrons continued to enter and exit the building.

Two Toledo Police cruisers showed up on scene, one spoke with Rhonda and the second spoke with me. I advised the Toledo Police Officers what had occurred. Toledo Police advised Rhonda that she was going to be banned for 6 months per our policy for harassment of staff. Rhonda advised that she did not give a fuck and that she was not coming back to the library, Rhonda left the property without further incident. Mary Kinkus wrote a statement out for this report.

Incident Information: At approximately 4:20 pm Aaliyah DeGroff was seen at the FOL store display. She picked up two items, one zebra print pen and another rainbow colored lollipop. She proceeded to the back of the library with the items. A friend who she had been seen with earlier in the day came up to the circulation desk to purchase some items, and I asked where Aaliyah had gone. She said that Aaliyah was back by the computers. She ran and got Aaliyah, and I asked where the items that she had picked up off the shelf were. She stated that they were in the basket that held the pens on the FOL display. I asked her to hold up the pen so that I could see it as I was still behind the circulation desk. She picked up another pen, and showed it to me. I told her that was not one of the items that she took. And she said "Oh! It is in my bag". She walked back to the computer area, and brought her bag up. I told her we needed to look in the bag, and pulled out the items she had just taken. I asked if she was going to purchase them, and she said yes. Earlier, Aaliyah had purchased a few items, but did not have enough money to get all the items she wanted. I asked her why they were in her bag if she did not have enough money to buy them and she did not respond. I asked her to leave for the day.

Incident Information: On the day and time stated, I was informed by a supervisor Amber, that a young boy's bike was stolen. I talked to the young boy (Travisio Barrera), he stated that at approximately 1545 hours he came out to check on his bike and it was stolen. He stated that he locked his bike up along with his friends bike to the bike rack. I went to the bike rack and observed his friends bike was still locked up. There had been no damage or sign of the lock being tampered with. I took the young boys information and told him that should I find any information that I would notify his mother.

At approximately 1619 hours the boys guardian, Lebon Sledge came by the library. I talked to him about what happened, and informed him that I had our Dispatch office review cameras, but was unable to find a suspect at this time. I also informed him that should I find information on the stolen bike I would notify him.

No further.

Incident Information: On the date and time stated in this report, while on patrol in pop teen i saw three boys viewing pornographic material on one computer. Juleeon Carter was logged on to the computer that they were viewing the porn on and Malachi Wise and Travon Robonison were standing around him. I asked the boys to log off and follow me to DT. I obtained all of there information and explained to them that they were being banned and why. After first denying it, they told me that they were looking at it but it was Juleeon Carter that had pulled it up on his computer. I explained they would all be baned for it for seven (7) days from all TLCPL. While walking out LT. Gankosky heard Travon Robonison say Fuck Security two times. They left with no further incident.

Incident Information: Rebecca Pappas was using a computer. Her sister, Ethymia Mitsopoulos, came to the circulation desk and said that she was trying to use a computer but kept getting a message that already had an active session. Ms. Pappas had used her card in the past. I went over to help Ms. Mitsopoulos, who was trying to get on a computer next to Ms. Pappas. I asked her if she had used a computer earlier and said that we would figure it out. Ms. Pappas loudly said "Who gives a shit?" I told her not to use that kind of language in the library. She turned to a little boy next to her and loudly said "Did you hear what she said?" I then repeated that she could not use that type of language in the library. She and her sister left, while Ms. Pappas repeatedly stated in a loud voice what a rude woman I was.

Incident Information: On the day and time stated, I Sgt. Tracy was informed by Supervisor Amber Kroggel that a patron had witnessed 3 boys attempting to steal a bike from the bike rack. Myself and Amber went out to the bike rack where there were 3 boys standing by a bike. I asked if the bike belonged to them. They replied "No, we just wanted to ride it". I told the boys that taking a bike without asking is a theft and they had no business even going near the bike. I called Dispatch to review that cameras of the incident and they only saw 2 boys by the bike. Eric Talley and Omarion Takimbay confessed to trying to take the bike. I took their names and information and explained that their actions were wrong and that they would be banned from all T-LCPL and would be receiving a letter in the mail stating when they will be able to return.

Incident Information: Volunteer reader Cammie Lonsway approached me and said 3 kids took her cell phone and another brought it back without the case. Lonsway said she was reading to some kids in the kids area when 3 kids ages 10-12 took her cell phone and left the building. She said a different kid brought back the cell phone and said the kid with the red shirt took your phone. That's when she approached me. I searched the property for suspects. No one was found fitting the descriptions that she gave me. I called dispatch to check the cameras. Dispatch found the 3 boys matching the description entering the library. Incident Information: I was patrolling the inside of the building when I noticed Robert Yark on computer 19 looking at an inappropriate web site. I walked behind the wall behind him and looked over and saw he was on Adam 4 Adam a porn dating site. 66 Amanda Evans was already on the property. I got Yarks computer information and called dispatch. Yark was banned for the same incident 7 days in December 2011. Evans and I approached Yark and escorted him to the computer lab. I informed him that he could not be on porn dating sites in the library and that he was banned for that already once before. He said he knew and that's why he was sitting on a computer in the back of the library. I told him that this was his second offense and that he would not be allowed back into the library. Also that he will be receiving a letter in the mail in around a week telling him how long he would be banned for. I told him that if he did not receive the letter in a week that he should call security at Main before he tried to return to any library. Yark left without further incident.

I spoke with Bonnie in reference to the male subject peeling his tires. Bonnie advised that she got into a verbal altercation with Shaun. Bonnie advised Shaun did not like what she had to say and went up and kicked her son's bike. The bike was locked on the bike rack. The bike was not damaged. I had dispatch review the camera footage. Dispatch advised that Shaun did go up and kick Bonnie son's bike and then threw something.

Incident Information: On todays date, Mr.. Truss came into the branch at approximately 10:30 am and asked for his library card information, at which point Mrs. Irons gave it to him and noticed the smell of alcohol on him- he was loud at this time but not disruptive. As the morning progressed, Mr. truss grew louder and began using profanity in the children's area. I asked him to watch his language, and he responded but it was muffled, so I could not understand his response. He walked out the door, but then returned. When he returned at approximately 11:30, he was harassing another patron who was putting money on his print card. Then he went to the computer are and began to bother several other patrons. I went directly over to him and asked him to leave, at which point he laughed and Mr.. Harbauer backed me up and told him that he had to leave immediately. Mr. Truss mimicked Mr. Harbauer and slowly began walking out the door as he stopped by the other pc stations. Mr. Collins, Mr Harbauer and I continued to tell him that he had to leave immediately and leave the grounds, at which point he yelled in the parking lot that I "fucked just like he does". He saw me with a phone and encouraged me to call the police. I was in the process of calling Main security when he left in a car with another patron.

Incident Information: Mr. Carpenter (first name unknown) was sitting in the last row of computers at #18. An adult female came up to Denise Mollenkopf to complain that he was watching porn and that her young son saw it. Denise went over and saw for herself that he was. he clicked onto something else when he saw Denise looking. By the time I was done with the customer I was helping at the time, and the staff let me know what was going on, Mr. Carpenter was back to watching porn and he was moving his screen to better show a boy who was aslso looking on. The boy looked about 8 years old. I do not think it was the son of the lady who first pointed out what was going on. Mr. Carpenter clearly knew that the child was looking on, and he was chuckling over that fact. The screen showed two nude males in the act of sex. I asked Mr. Carpenter to leave for teh day. He is a well-known frequent customer and I will figure out his first name and send that in. I am pretty sure of his address and phone number.

Incident Information: On the date and time stated above a patron came up to this Officer and informed me of a kid yelling in the parking lot. As I approached suspect (Mr. Hill) Was in the middle of the branch parking lot yelling and cursing towards 3 kids who were across the street. This officer informed suspect (Mr. Hill) to stop his yelling and get out of the parking lot. Mr. Hill claimed that the kids were trying to start a fight with him over at the McDonald's across the street. The 3 kids across the street (Maleck Cash, Terrance and Trevon Collins) never came on property until this officer called them over to see what was going on. All 3 kids informed me that they had no idea who the kid was and that he just started yelling at them while at McDonald's and kept trying to bait them to fight. Information was gathered from all 3 kids and they were told to leave the area. Suspect (Mr. Hill) is currently serving a ban and isn't allowed back in the library until 8-13-12. Mr. Hill has been told several times by the Branch Manager Julie Bursten not to be on the library property during his ban. The last time Mr.. Hill was inside the library he was given a copy of his ban letter and told the next time he was caught on property charges for Criminal Trespass would be filed. Suspect (Mr. Hill) was told again he wasn't allowed to be on the Library Parking lot especially if it was to start a fight in the library parking lot. This Officer informed the suspect (Mr. Hill) that charges for trespassing would be filed against him. Suspect 9Mr. Hill) along with Witness 1 was told to leave the property. Incident Information: At 1730hrs Faith asked me to come out and look at her vehicle. She said she noticed a dent to her drivers side rear fender between the wheel well and the rear taillight. When we looked at her vehicle we also noticed some light scratches along her drivers side door consistent with the damage to the dent on the rear fender. It looks as if a vehicle had side swiped Faiths vehicle. Faith said she noticed the damage at around 1045 when she was leaving the library for a meeting. Faith and I took the attached pictures. The light scratches on the door could not be seen in the pictures.

Incident Information: Ann Evans reported stopping a bike thievery on our property. She observed two young black males with jeans and white t-shirts attempting to take a bicycle with an attached side car through back gate of library property leading to apartments next door. Ann stopped the youth by telling them this was not their bike (assuming because of children's side car). They stopped and Ann was assisted by Mark Abranczyk who brought the bike to the front of the library. Mr. Moor walked across lot noticing the conversation surrounding the bike. The bike was first brought to the library bike rack by Mr. Moor. The youth took it from back lot of library parking lot. Mr. Moor was advised to lock his bike at all times.

Incident Information: On 7/28/2012 at approximately 1600 hours I was informed by Mary that a banned patron was inside the library. Mary advised that the patron was a Miya Townsend and that she has informed Miya that she needs to leave. Mary pointed out Miya to me. I advised Mary that Miya has been in the library several times in the past four months and has given me a different name when asked for her name. Miya had given her name as Shavonna when asked in the past. I stopped Miya as she was leaving the library with her cousins, Shavonna Townsend and Jay"Shon Midcalf (Townsend). I advised Miya that she is banned and could not be inside the library. She advised that she did not know she was banned. I advised Miya that she knew she was banned still, because she had giving me a different name and has been using her cousin Shavonna's card. I had asked Miya for her current address and phone #. Miya gave me three different addresses but insisted that 542 1/2 Milton ave. was her current address. I advised Miya that her ban was most likely be continued due to her repeated trespassing. Miya left without further incident.

After Miya left the property Mary advised me that she found out who Miya was, because she signed up for summer reading club and used her real name.

I advised dispatch of the incident and had them look Miya up. She is banned until 08/17/2012 and she has had a prior incident of trespassing. This will be her second.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report, while on patrol i got a call of suspicious activity on the north civic plaza. A custodian (Antonio) called dispatch stating the he had seen a gentleman walking around with a bag of syringes. I approached the suspect when he had just walked into the building headed toward the art gallery. I then asked Mr. Whaley if he would follow me to DT to answer some questions. The suspect agreed to follow me. On the way to DT he was stumbling and lost his shoe a few times but was cooperative with going with me. Once we were in DT i obtained all his information and checked for priors. Lt. Gankowsky searched Mr. Whaley. He was holding the plunger but he did not have any syringes on him. The suspect stated that he found it on the roof and was going to throw it away. TPD was then called and they searched him and also checked for priors. After nothing was found we let Mr. Whaley leave and he left with no further incident.

I took the bike and as I was putting it in the bike rack the suspect came out, highly agitated that I could tell the owner I was moving their bike. I told him it wasn't allowed in the library foyer and he became further upset and said he was leaving and went inside. I followed and observed him logging off the computer and approaching Ms. Arias. Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was typing a report for a previous incident when I was called to help with a disruptive patron. As I approached her, she was being escorted by S/O Cessna and Gozdowski. She was going to leave when I told her she needed to come with me into the detention room so I could get her information. She then told me as she was walking to the DT Room that she "was not going to have sex with me." I told her to sit down on the bench so I could write down her information. She told me her information but as she was giving me her information she would talk about different things that were not related to each other leading me to believe that she was under the influence of some kind of substance. She was also observed by A/C Ervin and Security Coordinator Sabo. TPD was called and she was escorted out of the library by them. There was no further incident.

Incident Information: On the date and time stated in this report, while on patrol in the metro i was talking to the librarian when a patron and a minor walked in being loud. The librarian informed me that they had been loud all day and they needed to be asked to leave if they continued. After listening to them for a minute they started to joke around and hit each other. At that time i told them that they would both need to leave for the day. They both started arguing with me when the mom of the one minor walked in. I explained what had happened and that her daughter had to leave for the day. As i was talking to them the other patron walked out yelling, " bitch ass security guard". While still yelling TPD stopped him in the central court telling him to calm down. He started to argue and trying to walk away. TPD then took him to DT. He was then cuffed and searched. He had a bottle of pills on him that he said he found on the roof. He was then explained that he would be banned and he left with no further incident.

Incident Information: On said time and date I, Officer Fane approached Officer Anderson who was at the door desk. I informed her of a situation in BTS. Upon speaking with Officer Anderson she informed me that a gentlemen who was taking pictures of her just a few minutes prior to my arrival was now behind me taking pictures of my rear end. As I turned to observe the patron he positioned the cellular phone in which he was taking pictures with toward our faces. He then proceeded to take pictures while both Officers were facing him. As I approached this patron he turned and walked into the bathroom so I followed him and I asked him what was he doing. He informed me that he was taking pictures to post on face book. He also informed me that he does not like it when black men and white women talk and that was another reason for him to take pictures. I asked this patron to step over to the DT room so that I could gather his information. The patron who we now know as Jospeh M. Emerson became loud and disruptive. I asked the suspect if he had taken a picture of myself and Officer Anderson prior to our walk to the DT room and he replied, " Yes but, I did nothing wrong theres no rule in the Library saying I can't take pictures of the Library or it's staff". Once in the DT room I asked the suspect for his ID, he asked "Why?" Mr. Emerson's demeanor was aggressive. I then informed him that he would be banned for Harassment of staff by stalking. The suspect said, "I'm calling the Police, your not going to ban me for life." He infact called Toledo Police. The suspect refused to give his information and proceeded to leave the DT room. I then requested for Sgt.Tracy's assistance. I told the suspect he could not leave until I obtained his information this was for the safety of myself, the patrons and the other officers who were working. I informed Mr. Emerson that since he called TPD he had to stay and wait until they arrived or else I would detain him. The suspect then called 911 and told them that "This Security Guard, rent a cop is trying to ban me from the Library for life and will arrest me if I try to leave". Sgt. Tracy arrived on scene and was able to obtain the suspects information. Mr. Emerson then said, "I will delete pictures if you let me go." Sgt.Tracy then talked to the suspect and explained that taking pictures in the library is ok theres no law against it, but when you start following around the staff and patrons taking pictures thats not ok. He further explained that if he wanted to take a picture of someone that he should ask them first so that they dont feel violated. Mr. Emerson said that he refused to do anything of the sort. we then asked what was his reasoning for not obtaining permission. Mr. Emerson then stated, "there were these black guys keeping these white girls from talking to me like they wanted to at the mission and the plasma bank and it's a game to them, they playing with me, and until my investigation is done both of those security guards are involved." Sgt.Tracy informed him that the security guards at the Library have nothing to do with the mission or plasma bank or whatever issues that may be going on over there. When TPD arrived we informed them of the suspect actions. They talked with the Mr. Emerson and escorted him out. TPD did not follow a report. Mr. Emerson left without further incident.

A few minutes later I observed that Jay Miller's bike was missing from the bike rack. I advised the victim of the situation,. Jay advised me that he was not going to call TPD for a report. Jay advised that he does not have a current address because he is bouncing from place to place right now. I advised dispatch of the situation and asked for some pictures of the suspect. Incident Information: On the date stated above both suspects (Mr. Jones and Ms. Munn) were being disruptive and grouping up at the computers. After being told the policy about grouping up at the computers three times, the staff ended all of their computer sessions. Both suspects (Mr. Jones and Ms. Munn) then left the library only to begin to hang out near the front entrance of the library. This officer had already spoken to both about loitering near the doors earlier in the day. As I made my way up near the doors suspect 2 (Ms. Munn) took a 24oz bottle of pop and threw it at suspect 1 (Mr. Jones). The bottle missed Mr Jones biting and exploding all over the handicap ramp wall making a mess on the wall and ramp. An elderly patron had just gotten near the bottom of the ramp and was startled by the incident. Suspects left without incident. This officer was unable to get the elderly patrons name, patron had left while suspects were being escorted off property. This officer contacted dispatch to see if any of the suspects had prior offenses along with a request for pictures to be sent.

Ms. Munn has been talked to the last few days 8-8-12 and 8-9-12 about keeping an eye on her 4 year old son who had been causing problems for staff and other patrons (running behind circ desk, bothering patrons at computers, running around branch). Mr. Jones has at least one prior offense for disruptive behavior and has just recently been reinstated from a ban.

Incident Information: On 8/10/12 at approximately 1350 hours I was on outside patrol. When I entered the building, Denise advised me that the suspect, Thomas Richardson, was running around when I was on patrol outside. Denise advised me that he was now at computer #1 with two other people. I approached Thomas and advised him of the Locke Branch Library's policy of only two people at a computer at a time. I advised Thomas to go sit down away from the computer area. Thomas started to head toward the children's area of the library. Thomas then stated that he was going to sit next to someone at the computer. I advised that he could not for a while. Thomas went back to computer #1 and sat down. I told Thomas if he did not get up and move he was going to be kicked out for the day. I advised Thomas to get up several times; Thomas advised that he was not getting up. I gave the chair Thomas was sitting on a slight jerk up at the rear of the seat. Thomas stood up and stated that he was going to throw the fucking chair at me. I grabbed Thomas's left arm and advised him that he was going to be banned for the threat and escorted him outside. As we came outside Thomas stated several times for me to get my fucking hands off him. I let go of Thomas when I was clear of the front entrance. I advised Thomas that he was going to be banned for a period of time. As Thomas ran away from the property he turned around and stated that he had a fucking pocket knife bitch. I called dispatch and advised them of the situation and asked if Thomas had a record with the library. Dispatch advised that there was no history with Thomas.

Incident Information: On said time and date I witnessed Mr. Andrew M. Gunn (suspect) viewing pornographic material. Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report, while on patrol i received a call from dispatch that there was a panic alarm set of in children's. When i arrived i noticed a patron laying on the floor in front of the computers. She was crying and screaming uncontrollably. While the librarians were trying to calm her two boys down i tried to find out what had happened. After trying to talk to her she said that she had just found out her grandfather had passed away. While trying to get her out of children's Mrs. Bolden heard a few kids laughing when she yelled, " inconsiderate fucking kids". When she finally got up and started walking a little the paramedics had arrived. We then took Mrs. Bolden on the administration floor in front of the elevators so that she would stop making a scene in front of all the patrons. She continued to yell and scream while we were getting her information. She refused to go with the paramedics, they then told her she would have to calm down before leaving with the boys. After somewhat calming down she grabbed the two boys and proceeded to leave. Officer Fane followed them out and down the street till they were off the property. She left with no further incident.

Incident Information: I, dispatcher A. Marsh, got a phone call from David in metro about two girls, now known as sisters Tryshana and Jakazia Garraway, arguing over a cell phone. The oldest (Jakazia) had snatched the phone from Tryshana's hands resulting in Tryshana slapping her. When David had called, Tryshana was walking out the door as I stopped her and pulled her into the security office with Ofc. Gozdowski and myself while Ofc. Fane went to get Jakazia. Ofc. Fane took Jakazia into DT to get her information while I got Tryshana's information. Ofc. Fane then brought Jakazia into the security officer and advised both of the sisters that their kind of behavior was unacceptable and that they might be receiving a ban letter in the mail in a few days. They girls were very cooperative and had no further incident. Ofc. Fane called their guardian to notify her of the situation and we released the girls to walk home.

Incident Information: Mario was reserving multiple Cd's from home. Once the reserves were received he would cancel them. Andrea V. followed the cancellations and determined that multiple copies were missing. We discussed the situation with Mario and his father. An agreement was made to prohibit Mario from placing reserves from home or with the libraries. With a block in place he could only reserve through Andrea.
6 of the previous reserves were returned in out drop box. They were previously marked missing. (The discussion took place on July 17)
a missing case was found by our custodian, previously reserved by Mario and canceled/emptied on August 14. Empty CD was found in cubicle where Mario was sitting previously. Discussed situation with Jeff Sabo - he recommended speaking with him about finding empty case on August 14, 2012.

Incident Information: While on patrol I received a complaint that there were kids on the roof top throwing food at cars and people passing by. I then went to the roof and took the four suspects to the DT room. Once in DT I received the information from the suspects.

At first they gave false information. After a few minutes they gave up their real information. Suspect 1 (Alazyonn Kimble), and Suspect 4 (Deontae Martin) have a history of disruptive behavior in the library to include theft (Stealing money from the cafe tip jar). Suspect 1 is currently banned for 1 year.

I reviewed the camera and saw suspect 2 (Tretwione Wilkes) Jump over the hand rail and stand on the ledge of the building. I explained to him how dangerous that is. None of the suspects had a working contact information. I eventually got ahold of Suspect 3's (Mackie Luster) father (Emanuel). Suspect 3's father OK'd them to be released to go home.

Suspects then left the library without further incident.

Incident Information: At approximately 3:20pm Cathy Kiel alerted me that, as she was entering the building from her break she witnessed Greg Orr at the bike rack. I searched the magazine room as well as the glass block area for loose material. At 3:25pm he entered the building and began browsing the DVD section. He picked 6 DVD's from the shelf and entered the magazine room with his backpack open. He pulled something from his backpack with his back facing me and placed them on the chair in the magazine room. He proceeded towards the back of the room and came back and picked up the newspaper. At 3:30pm I witnessed him place the newspaper, and drape it over the 6 DVD's that he had in his hand. He walked out of the magazine room and towards the glass block area. I entered the magazine room and picked up the items that he had placed on the chair; 3 DVD's with broken locks. I called security and requested 66 to be dispatched so that we could question and search the individual's backpack.

Sheriff Gonzalez arrived and I updated him on what I witnessed as well as updated him that this had been going on for several months and recently Maumee branch also had this problem.

They were able to pull video from Maumee branch with Mr. Orr's picture showing him with a stack of DVD's and as reported to me, shortly thereafter, the Circulation Supervisor, Connie Dixon found all the locks broken off. Upon showing these pictures to Heatherdowns staff members the identified him as George Orr, a regular patron at Heatherdowns. All staff were alerted to check the glass block area and the magazine room every so often in to see if they could find material with locks broken off.

Sheriff Gonzalez waited outside near the bike rack in his cruiser. At approximately 4:20pm Greg Orr exited the library. I witnessed Sheriff Gonzalez approach him and ask to search his bag. He asked if he had checked out the material and he said he "forgot". Sheriff Gonzalez found the 6 DVD's in his bag, and escorted Mr. Orr back into the library, where Mr. Orr was questioned about the DVD's. Mr. Orr admitted that he had been doing this for "months" at both Maumee and Heatherdowns, and did not want to pay a fine, and that he "popped the locks" off of the DVD's and then returned them at a later date, picked up 6-10 more and did the same "every couple of weeks". I explained that his fine was under $10, and that the library works with individuals that have larger fines by arranging payments. I explained that each damage d case was $5 to replace, in addition to staff time to remake all of the cases. Officer Gonzalez showed him pictures of the cases from the past unusual occurrences, and Mr. Orr admitted to several of these. Sheriff Gonzalez explained to Mr. Orr that he would be banned from all library property and planned on submitting paperwork to charge criminally with theft and destruction of library property. Mr. Orr stated that he understood, and left without further incident.

Incident Information: On 8/18/12 at approximately 1220 hours I observed Brett and Rhonda Brookover come into the library. Brett went to the circulation desk and spoke with Margie. Rhonda went to the reservation computer. Brett then walked over to the reservation computer and appeared to have a menacing demeanor about him while he spoke to Rhonda. Brett then went and sat in a chair near the windows that face Miami St.. Rhonda walked up to Brett and attempted to speak with him but Brett stood up and stated "don't talk to me" and walked away. I approached both Rhonda and Brett and had them both go outside with me to find out what the issue was. Brett and Rhonda advised that they have been arguing before coming into the library and apologized for bringing it onto the property. Rhonda left the property in her car and Brett walked home. I advised dispatch of the situation.

Incident Information: We have suspected Ms. Walkin of stealing reserved Blu-Rays for several weeks. We finally moved them behind our desk so that patrons have to ask for their reserved Blu-Rays from a clerk. Several times Ms. Walkin has had Blu-Rays reserved in her children's names and clerks remember handing them to her, but they do not get checked out on any of her cards. Ms. Walkin has high fines and cannot use her card for checkout. Yesterday she came to the desk and said that she was going out to check her car for a book and I told her that she would have to leave all library materials in her bag with me until she returned. She gave me two books on CD and 7 DVD's. When she came back in I spent about 15 minutes explaining her fine situation and what she would need to do so that she could start using her cards again. I told her that she could not check out the adult DVD's on her card until payment is made and that I would hold them for her for 24 hours. She had two remaining juvenile DVD's that she was going to check out on her child's card. After speaking with Sue about the situation, I realized that we did not see her checkout the DVD's and that she had left the building. While Sue and I looked for Ms. Walkin; Susan Conklin said she saw her unlock DVD's at self charge and leave. These items were not checked out. Sue called Amanda in Security to check the cameras and they said the picture was not good enough to see her unlocking the DVD's.

Incident Information: A mother was in with her toddler and infant. While the mother was returning library material her toddler son was observing the fish tank. While looking at the fish he somehow lodged him elbow between the wooden base and the glass of the tank. The mother tried to pull his arm out, but it was stuck. We applied some lotion and the child came free. I plan on purchasing some foam to place between the wooden base and the tank to prevent this from happening again. The mother did not seem upset or concerned with the library. The little boy's elbow was red, however he was not crying and could still move his arm.

Incident Information: I caught suspect wandering around in our small meeting room (the Storyroom) earlier this week, and noticed that several of our cabinet doors were open. I told him that he could not go back there unless there was a program and we invited him in. I knew he had been looking through our cabinets, I assumed for candy or food, but I didn't think there was anything in them that he could take. Today, I caught him wandering around in the storyroom again. This time I noticed that he had eaten several donut holes out of a box I had brought in for Sally's last day at West Toledo. There was also a bag of cough drops, which had been sitting on a shelf on my book cart, lying on the table next to the donut box (I assume he thought it was candy). I asked Bryan if he had eaten the donuts, and at first he wouldn't speak or even acknowledge me, but finally he said yes. I told him once again that the storyroom was not open to the public and that it was off-limits for him unless he was invited to a program. A little later, as I was putting things in one of the cabinets, I realized that two of the four 6-packs of Hershey bars that I had bought for a program were gone. I don't know if these were taken today, or earlier in the week when I found him the room, going through our cabinets. Bryan has also stolen pop from a cooler previously.

Incident Information: On 8-29-12, Mrs. McIntosh approached me and told me about her rear drivers side tire damage. According to Mrs. McIntosh, she was at the library between 1530 and 2030 hours. When she was leaving, she found her tire flat. She drove home and the following day her relative helped her change the tire. She also mentioned that she bought a new tire because the damage one was beyond repair. The tire shop owner told her that it seems slashed the tire. Mrs. McIntosh mentioned that maybe Trevon Chandler could be the suspect since she has a restraining order against him and he violated the order several times already. I called dispatch to review the cameras.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report this officer was patrolling around the South Branch Library when I witnessed Andre and Risa arguing at the computer. I approached the patrons and asked them to stop disrupting others. This happens very frequently when it comes to Andre and Risa at the computers Jane and I have had many talks with Andre about his behavior. One week prior to this incident Andre was yelling at Risa at the computer are and this is not the first time they have argued. I then told him if he acts like that again that he would be banned and that his behavior was uncalled for. Andre started to raise his voice so I asked him to come with me to the meeting room to talk about what we can do to fix the problem and the situation escalated. Andrea began to argue and accuse me of always harassing him and embarrassing him in front of other patrons. Andre comes in with Risa to work on his business and frequently disregards the libraries policies and rules. Andrea will be banned from all TLPCL locations for a matter of six (6) months.

Incident Information: At date and time listed above, Gary M. Zdrojewski came to me stating that the bike he rode here on was stolen. He said that it was locked up and that the lock was still on the rack. Due to where he put the bike at, we have no camera on that area. Advised patron to go to the Safety Building to file a police report.

On 8/31/12, the owner of the bike, who said she loaned it to Mr. Zdrojewski, came into the library to see if she could obtain a copy of the report. She was told that we will notify our coordinator and after the report gets processed, she would then be able to request a copy of the report. Incident Information: Last Friday, two girls approached the Holland desk to check out materials. One girl presented her Mother's library card. When I explained that her Mother needs to be present to use the car/or to sign her daughter up for her own card, the child became argumentative and left the desk. She used her cell phone to contact her Mother, then came back to the desk, thrust the phone at me to listen to her Mother's demands that her daughter be able to use her card- the Mother verbally abusive and shouting at me. I tried to interrupt to tell her the books were checked out this time only, but the yelling continued and I passed the phone back to the daughter.

We closed the library and as I was leaving the parking lot a car begins backing out and I stop to let her go; as it moves away she pulls aside and waves her arms out the window indicating I should pass. As soon as I get alongside her, she blocks my way; rolls down her window to continue hollering about how her daughter was mistreated and how insulting I was to her on the phone. I waited after telling her that a favor over rules was granted for the checkout and that inflamed her more. Finally she waved me on and I maneuvered past her to the street and home.

Incident Information: A group of kids were in library near the drinking fountain, when a man entered saw them he approached them in a threatening manner. Saying- "I know where you live" or "I can find out where you live". He pointed at them in a threatening manner.

I interrupted asking what was going on- he said nothing is going on and walked away. Kids were frightened and headed towards the exit. I followed them into the lobby and asked them what was going on. I said to them: "You know what the library is a safe place, and that threatening behavior was not acceptable in the library, right?" One girl said they were scared of the man because on their way here, they saw him on the RR tracks on McCord. He was going across the tracks when the bars were down and they said something to him. He got mad and flipped them off and said some stuff to them too. One of the boys(with the ballcap) said that the man threatened them that he'd find out where they live. The kids left the library. The men, and another young man who was with him, were looking at DVD's. When they saw me head to the back room they quickly left the library. I called the police out of concern for the kids.

Incident Information: While on patrol I received a call to report to the circulation desk for a patron that needed to be removed from the library. When I arrived I was met by harry (Circulation Staff) who pointed out the suspect (Vincent Moore). Harry stated that the suspect had stepped infront of, and nearly knocked over another elderly patron. When asked to step back the suspect became very disruptive and refused to step back. The Suspect then started mocking harry and harassing him.

I then approached the suspect and told him to follow me to the DT room. Once inside I received the suspect's information, then told him that he will most likely be banned from all of the Toledo Lucas County Public Librarys for six months to a year (Considering this is his second offense). I also told the suspect that if he returns to any of the libraries or their grounds he can be arrested for criminal trespass.

Incident Information: Adam Majchszak (pronounced may-check) suspects his roommate, Amin Awada of stealing materials from the Library. Today Adam brought in the TLCLP owned/labeled CD: Learn to Live by Rucker, bar code #0000748772. The CD case was mangled and the locking mechanism was missing from the case. Adam explained that he himself had not checked the CD out. Because the case was broken and because he has seen a number of additional TLCPL items in a similar state in his apartment- he is concerned that they have been stolen. In addition he had a short list of items which he wanted to know if they were stolen. Adam explained that he and the roommate were in the process of parting ways and that he didn't want any stolen property in his apartment. I explained that due to privacy issues, I could not discuss items that have been checked out by another person. I thanked him for returning the CD, which had not been checked out, and was marked in "Missing" status from the Library's collection. I thanked Adam and the young lady accompanying him for bringing this to our attention. I told them that I'd forwards this information to our Security Department. Note that the items Adam listed which he suspected were stolen were currently checked out.

Incident Information: On the date and time mentioned above, Mr. Terrance Neal walked in the library and told me that his brother Mr. Robert Simmons threatened him with a knife over some some lost keys dispute. This incident happened on property when Mr. Neal's girlfriend, Mrs. Tammy Jones, was picking him up from GED class held at the library. Before this incident I did noticed an African American male on a marron color station wagon following Mrs. Jones when I was checking the premises outside. When I came back from my hourly building check, several patrons told me that two males and one female were arguing. At about 1500 hrs, Mr. Simmons kept following Mr. Neal and Mrs. Jones. Mr. Simmons assaulted Mr. Neal and smashed Mrs. Jones' station wagon windshield with her 6 month old baby in the front seat at an unknown location off property. After Mr. Neal explained to me everything, I called dispatch to inform them about the incident. The dispatch on duty called TPD to take a report. TPD made a report and found that Mrs. Jones had a warrant for her arrest. She was taken to Lucas County Jail. No further incidents reported.

Incident Information: On said time and date Officer Rupert (posted at door desk) informed a patron that pets were not allowed in the library the patron walked by and said it's a service animal and kept walking. Off. Rupert then informed me of this situation. I asked Off. Cessna to assist me in telling the patron he could not have a pet in the library, I also asked Sgt. Chambers to print a copy of the ADA so I could find out what qualified as a service animal. Once I obtained the information I approached the patron and informed him he could not have a pet in the library, he informed me it was a service animal. I asked the patron " what service does the animal preform" he replied " emotional" informed him that was not a function of a service animal. The patron then said "I have mental problems." I then asked the patron "what mental problem do you have" and can you produce any documents for proof of your statement. The patron refused to answer and did not show document. The patron then said I am going to make a compliant and began to leave. He then stopped and said "I have post traumatic stress disorder" and showed a card that said service animal. The patron and his service animal were allowed to stay. No other problems occurred.

Incident Information: While on patrol I (S.O. Peters) was dispatched to the first floor women's restroom where suspect (Monica Russell) was standing with our Dispatch Officer (Amanda Marsh).

DO. Marsh (aware that Mrs. Russell is a suspect for a theft that a few weeks prior [08/30/2012]) asked the suspect if she could see the five DVD cases that she was holding in her hand. Suspect was very compliant. The DVD cases were all empty with all of the disks missing. DO. Marsh then asked to search the suspects purse. The suspect again complied. Then stated that the purse doesn't belong to her. At that time I requested Officer Gaines assistance, then escorted the suspect to the D.T. Room.

I then requested Officer. Cessna (Female) to search the suspects purse. When we searched the suspects purse we found 22 single disks without their cases. We then contacted T.P.D. and notified the suspect of the Library's Code of Conduct Policy and Eviction Guidelines. A few minutes later TPD Arrived on scene and began gathering information from the suspect, staff, and witnesses. Officer. Cessna then handcuffed and escorted the suspect to the front of the library, where she, along with TPD Officer. Vasquez transported the suspect to LCCC. Suspect left the property without further incident.

About 20 minutes later, Tiffany handed me a bible stating she did not want the Bible and she would pay for the writing on the inside. The writing said "Help me please." About this same time Barb Trevino approached me and said a patron told her Tiffany slipped her anot and said she was afraid for her life. At this point I called library security and explained teh dynamic to Justin. Justin said we should call TPD and he offered to place the call so I could remain discrete since the couple was nearby. (I was the only library on ref. duty at the time.) Shortly thereafter TPD called to get descriptions of Tiffany and Bradley and informed me that two units were on the way. Within minutes TPD arrived. As they approached Bradley got up to leave but they stopped him. TPD asked him if he had warrants and he responded yes. Bradley was then handcuffed and escorted outisde for questioning. TPD took him away without further incident. An officer also spoke with Tiffany privately and the officer left without incident. Tiffany remained in the library for a short while thereafter then left without further incident.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report this officer was patrolling in the South Branch Library. I witnessed Nathaniel talking to a friend at the computer area. Nathaniel and his friend were being loud and I kindly asked them to quiet down. In the past Nathaniel has been warned on how he talks to staff. Nathaniel began to aggressively tell me that I was eavesdropping on his conversation, and to mind my own business. I told Nathaniel that it would be best if he left for the day and came back tomorrow. He began to argue with me and his voice started to escalate and as he was leaving he called me an "asshole". I followed Nathaniel and told him that he would be banned for a term of six (6) months and could return on 3-18-12. He left without further issues.

Incident Information: On 9-24-12 while coming on duty I noticed the first half of the handicap ramp had some kind of markings on the top of the wall. Upon further notice I then saw the words "Art is not a crime" written on the top of the wall with what appears to be spray paint. The vandalism goes all the way to the start of the second half of the handicap ramp. I then came inside the branch and showed circulation supervisor Shirley Greenwade who was the person in charge. Dispatch was notified and a request for a camera review on camera 1 was given. Pictures were taken of the vandalism using the branch camera that the staff uses. Those pictures have been attached to this report.

A few minutes later Jody went to him on computer 20 and asked how she could help. At that time he would not explain what he wanted and that it was all her fault because it took her so long to get over there. Clearly angry I informed him that rudeness to Librarians would not be tolerated and he would have to leave. He informed me I was being racist and he would sue me in court. A short time later he called Sue Schafer (Manager) and told her I was rude to him and also offered to give him phone number at Main. He did not want it, told Sue she was a racist and would handle this in court.

There was another girl (a cousin) Beth sent away from Geneva's computer reminding her that there is only one to a computer. Approximately 15 minutes later Geneva was back at adrianas computer and at that point beth told adriana to log off her computer. Beth ststed that girls began to argue about not finishing their session. Beth then came to myself Sgt. Tracy and supervisor Amber Kriggel to assist with the situation. Beth then explained to myself and Amber what had happened. At that point amber told both girls they would have to leave. I then escorted both girls outside and at that point Adriana became more loud and disruptive and Amber then told adriana that she would be recieving a letter ststing when she will be able to come back to the library. I contacted dispatch for any priors concerning Adriana, she did have one incident where she was banned. Her return date was December 2011. No further.

Incident Information: Kenny Veley and another boy was pushing and hitting each other when sitting at a computer. I had already gave them several warnings about noise earlier. I told both of them to leave. Veley refused to log off the computer. I told him to log off or I will have his computer shut off. Veley then slammed the computer mouse down on the desk. I told him to leave and he walked for the door. About 10 minutes later I seen Veley by the game room. I asked him why he was back in the building and told him to leave several times before he exited the building. When Veley was exiting the building he hit the entrance/exit door and knocked the emergency door off track. I told him not to come back for a week. I put the door back in place. Clear from incident.

Has I was enterreing the Branch I noticed the Male point at me and the Female started to walk away. the Male got into the car and begain backing out of the parking space he was in, then the female ran across the parking lot and picked up a hammer and theartened to throw it at the males car. The male got out of his car and grabed a glass bottle off the lawn. I approached the male and female with my hand on my side arm(gun) and ordered them to put their weapons on the ground and walk away. The male complied and returned to his car the female refused to drop the hammer and stated "He hit me and he needs to be arrested." I staped infront of the males car and told him to turn off the car and step out so I could speak with him. He refused and said "I'm leaving" and drove around me. The female had stated "I called the Police." I asked her if she wanted to make a report she said "Yes", but walked away and did not return.

A neighbro who wants to stay anonymous stated "The guy never hit her and the glass bottle was from her throwing it at his car. Then she went back into the house and came out with a hammer and also throwed it at his car. The hammer didn't hit the his car. Moments after that had happend I saw you walking up holding your side teh guy did nothing wrong."

While on front door post on approximately 09/20/2012 I observed suspect (James Taylor [who is known for following women around trying to talk and hug them]). The suspect was walking with a woman talking to her. The woman seemed to be annoyed by the suspect's presents. She was walking fast and giving very short answers to the suspect while he walked behind her trying to keep up.

The next day; approximately 09/21/2012 I was again on the front door post when the same woman walked by. I see her everyday walk by the library and the previous day was the first time I saw her walking with the suspect so I asked her if she knew the man that was walking with her yesterday.

She then began to explain that the suspect follows her all the time and that he has tried to hug her before. She then told me that she explained to him that she is married and it is inappropriate to be hugging a married woman. In my opinion she seemed very annoyed with the suspect. She did say though that he is harmless; However, he follows her around and is always talking to her. I explained to the woman that if she ever has any issues while on library property to feel free to contact the security department and we can address the issue. Woman said thank you then continued on her way.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called to the garage to respond to a fight. When I got to the garage I saw Lt. Schroeder running through promenade en route to the garage. When LT. and I got to the garage we saw a TPD marked unit driving around the garage. At the same time I got another call from dispatch saying that the fight was in central court, and heading out the front door. I then asked TPD to drive around to the front entrance and intercept them coming out.

Lt. and I then ran back through the promenade toward the entrance. When we got to the top of the stairs PSO. Anderson told us that the fight was in central court still. The suspects at this time were just talking. Suspect 1 then tried to start a fight with Suspect 2. They also then started to get louder so the Lt. and myself told them they need to take it outside.

I then escorted Suspect 1 (Graves, Ot) outside. I then turned Suspect 1 over to TPD to resolve the issue. After a few minutes talking with TPD one of the Officers asked where suspect 2 was. I then left suspect 1 with one of the TPD officers, and took the other officer to Lt. Schroeder who was talking with, and getting information from suspect 2 (Drane, Alan)

Later found out that the suspects were fighting off of library property then came onto library property to argue about it. Suspect 2's mother (Walker, Tequilla) was the main person being loud in the library yelling at suspect 1.

A member of suspect 1's party stated that Suspect 2 spit on her, and that she was going to file an assault charge against suspect 2 on Monday.

Both Parties were told to leave for the day. Both suspect left the library without further incident.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated this officer was patrolling outside the library and inside. I had an occurrence with Ben before on his profanity around the library. I asked him several times to stop and to be respectful of the people around him and to not use that kind of language. A few moments later Librarian Brett had asked to remove Ben from the library because he continued to misbehave inappropriately in the library. I then talked to Ben and told him he would be banned and was warned several times to clean up his act. Ben knows he is banned for approx. 6 months.

Incident Information: On said time and date stated I witnessed Ms. Samantha A. Wright (suspect 1) and Jess A. Wright (Juv, suspect 2) take three DVD's to the express check out. Suspect 2 could only check out one so he gave one DVD to suspect 1 to check out on her card. Suspect 1 had two DVD's and only checked out one. When I asked where the other DVD was he replied "I put it back". I did not see him go to the AV area before or after checking out the movie. I will continue to watch suspect 1 and suspect 2 but for now all check outs must be done by staff. I have noticed on several occasions prior to date. On 10/10/12 suspect 1 and suspect 2 stayed until closing and checked out their items. At the time this did not raise my suspicions. On 10/11/12I noticed that suspect 2 would take items to the express check out one item at a time. I thought this was strange so I continued to watch suspect 2. I then realized that suspect 2 was over the ten DVD limit and could not check out anymore items. It looked as if suspect 2 had unlocked a DVD case and put it into his back without scanning it. I informed Amber (sup) of my findings, so she assisted suspect 1 and suspect 2 with their check out and all items were check out on the receipt. On 10/12/12 after confronting him about another issue, suspect 2 pulled a DVD out of his book bag and said "I was going to check this out". He thought were going to ask him about the DVD in his book bag but we were unaware of the DVD in his bag. Myself, Lisa Green (Manager) and Amber (sup) decided it would be best if suspect 1 and suspect 2 had supervised check out.

The victim described the cell phone as a black Samsung touch screen with a sliding keyboard. The male had a phone that fit the description, but the victim said it was not her phone. I asked if I could check their bags and coats and to empty all of their pockets. They complied and no cell phone was found.

Incident Information: On 10/22/2012 at approximately 2010 hours I heard the branch Manager, Judy Jones, call for a female juvenile to come to the reference desk. I approached the reference. Judy Jones advised me to write a report for the incident. Tamera advised Judy that she needed to get something from the male juvenile. Judy advised to Tamera to leave now. I followed Tamera to the hallway next to the bathrooms and observed Tamera hit the male juvenile again with her belt. I advised Tamera to leave now and to stop hitting him. I believe Tamera's hitting of the male juvenile was intended to be in fun. I followed Tamera out the door. I advised Tamera that she was going to be banned for at least 2 weeks if not longer. Sabina advised me that she observed Tamera hitting the male juvenile with her belt. The male juvenile was on the floor, laughing as he was getting hit. Sabina stated that she advised Tamera several times to stop hitting the male juvenile. The male juvenile left before I could get his name for the incident. Tamera has a prior incident fro infraction #9, 05/26/2011.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated above in this report this officer was patrolling in the Kent branch library. I saw Kejuan Patterson wondering around the library. I asked Kejuan to pull his pants up to the appropriate height. Kejuan responded "F that I'm a grown man". I then asked him to pull them up again because some people think that is offensive and if he didn't, he would have to leave the library for the day. Kejuan at that point asked me to meet him outside to fight me. I told him it was in his best interest to just go home before he would be arrested. He continued to harass me as he was leaving the library. I then explained to him that he wouldn't be able to come back into the library for an approximately 6 months (6-23-2012). Incident Information: This patron inquired about resources at the library to obtain a copy of his birth certificate. He had already been to the United Way and had gotten fact sheets on this, as well as food pantry services and subsidized housing, and been referred to Job and Family Services. I explained where he would need to go to obtain the birth certificate, and reviewed the other information sheets with him to confirm that those were the best resourcers in the area. I printed a map to Job and Family Services. At various points in the conversation, the patron was complimenting my outward appearance. He also asked for direct assistance in getting his birth certificate and getting a "good meal." I again referred him to the resources gathered. He began to discuss his situation in a bit more detail saying that "everyone has to sow their wild oats, but he's trying to do better now." He then said that he sometimes just needs to "shoot the nectar from his love house, know what I mean?" After this, I told him that what he just said had gone too far and was offensive to me. I told him that he had all the information sheets that would lead him to the needed resources, and wished him good luck. He thanked me, and left the department. Since then, he has spotted me walking around Main Library, and shouted out my name in greeting. He's also "visited" me in AV. I've kept these brief as he is just socializing.

Incident Information: On the date and time mentioned above, I was doing a routine check in the men restroom. I looked around and I found a ceiling tile out of place. I told David Bush, the custodian, about the ceiling tile. I asked him if he could confirm the tile was out of place. Mr. Bush grabbed a stool and began to look around the ceiling tile. He told me that in fact this was unusual. Upon further inspection, Mr. Bush noticed a small bag sticking out of the corner tile. He proceeded to move the tile and a little bag with white powder fell. I caught the bag and we took it to the back of the library. 66 Was dispatched and 66 TPD Johnson disposed of the bag. Unknown suspect at this time.

Incident Information: On said time and date a Caucasian female was sleeping in the children's area. I informed her at 1720 that we were about to close and ten minutes. She informed me that she had missed her bus and was waiting for the next one. I asked her when was the next bus coming and she told me 55:30. She said she just needed to rest for a moment (she did not look well). She stayed there until we were about to close and lock the doors. Upon leaving, myself and Lisa (manager) noticed that she had not left to catch her bus. It was very cold and wet outside so Lisa asked if we could call anyone that could take her home. She replied "No I don't live around this area". Lisa also asked about calling a cab for her, she said "I don't have money for a cab". Lisa then asked if she would like to go into one of the pizza places or the gas station so she could stay warm. She told us that she had been having asthma attacks for the last three days and did not have any medicine and when she walks it's hard for her to breathe. I asked if she needed us to call for emergency assistant, she began to walk away and said "Don't worry I'm leaving". Lisa informed her she did not have to leave. Lisa then said "I just thought it would be best if you were somewhere warm and if you needed help someone would be around to assist you". The female angrily stated "It's OK. I'll be fine. I'll get off the property". She left without further incident.

Incident Information: As closing time approached, the two above named minors, siblings attempted to phone their mother to confirm that she was picking them up at 5:30 as planned, but they got no answer. They went outside to wait for their ride. At closing time all staff were released to go home except for Eric Pfeffinger and Gayle Hebert, who stayed in the building and phoned Main Security to advise of the presence of unattended minors; Security said they'd send a car after they finished closing down Main. It was cold outside so we let the kids wait inside; they stayed near the door to watch the parking lot and used our phone to try their mom one more time. At 6:00 their mom pulled into the parking lot and the kids ran off to join her; we called security to cancel the car, locked up and left.

Incident Information: On the date and time stated in this report this officer was patrolling in the Kent Branch Library when I received a phone call from the Emergency dispatcher explaining we had a 911 hang up. I reviewed the camera to find Jordan and Quintin playing with the pay phone. I had asked Quintin if they had dialed 911 he said yes and it was an accident. I explained to Quintin's mother that he would not be allowed in the library for approximately seven (7) days. Jordan's mother was unavailable to speak to. I had called her on her cell phone explaining she needed to come to the library to pick up her son. She said she would be here shortly and she had never showed up. An hour later a young man walked to the library to pick him up. Jordan will also be banned for approximately seven (7) days also. Both may return on 11-5-2012.

Incident Information: I overheard what sounded like threats between Justin, Andrew, and Dakota in the Teen Area. I asked all into office to discuss. Justin accused Andrew and Dakota of stealing his iPhone. He said he hid it in the men's room trash can under the trash bag because he was afraid someone was going to steal it from him. He said that Andrew and Dakota were staring at him when they came in and had other friends around them talking about him. When he went back into the men's room to find the phone, it was gone. Andrew and Dakota said they didn't have the phone, they were looking at Justin because he looked like someone else they knew. Each was afraid of the other. The boys said they didn't have the phone and offered to let me search their bags and pockets. I explained that technically the phone was not stolen, he left it and there was really nothing I could do. Justin threatened that the boys saying that they weren't going to leave until he got his phone back, someone was going to get hurt. Then he walked out. I called police, and was able to talk further with Justin in the lobby until the arrival of HPD. Justin's foster parent could not be reached but another foster care provider came. Between the police officer, myself, and the foster care rep., Justin calmed himself and understood that he was banned from the library at this point for one week. NOTE: The foster care rep. mentioned that Justin probably would not be back, as he was currently due to move into another county.

Incident Information: I was called to the front desk by Ofc. Johnson. Upon arrival there I spoke to Marcy, a Librarian. She advised me that she was walking through popular when she heard a patron use a vulgar word while talking on a cell phone. She approached him and told him not to use that language. He told her to get f--ked and she would need someone else to tell him. As I approached him he got up and started walking towards the door. He told me he was having a bad call. I told him he was out for the day. As we entered center court he saw Marcy and began to stare at her as we walked by. I told him to knock it off and he said you can't tell me what to look at. I told him I know what he was doing and he needed to stop. He repeated that I couldn't tell him what to look at and I told him to leave. I will secure his information later for a six month ban.

Incident Information: On 10/31/2012 at approximately 1645 hours I approached Joseph about a prior incident that had occurred on 10/29/2012. After speaking about the incident, Joseph asked if it was ok if he kept the right side of his winter stocking cap down covering his right eye. Joseph lifted up his stocking cap to show me his black eye. Joseph asked me not to tell anybody, I pulled Joseph into a meeting room and asked him about his eye. Joseph stated that he hit a pole while playing football with his brothers yesterday 10/30/2012. I told Joseph that his eye does not look like it was hit by a pole. I advised Joseph that it looks like someone punched him. Joseph started to cry and he stated that he got in trouble yesterday and his mother was spanking him with a belt. Joseph advised that he had moved while getting spanked and was hit in the eye by the belt. Joseph advised it was his fault and not his mothers. Joseph did not want to say anything else. I advised Joseph that if his mother is hitting him and leaving marks like this that it is child abuse. I advised Joseph to talk to someone either at school or here at the library. Joseph stated his mother is not letting him go to the school until his eye heals. Joseph's brothers came to the door telling Joseph that they have to leave. I advised Judy Jones that I needed to talk to her after the event or at the end of the day. At approximately 1710 hours Joseph's mother came into the library and approached me. Joseph's mother is Michelle Hampton. Michelle started to ask why I was telling Joseph that his black eye was child abuse. I advised Michelle that what Joseph told me could be child abuse if she is hitting him. Judy Jones approached Michelle spoke with her. Judy Jones had Michelle leave the library. Judy Jones contacted Jeff Sabo and advised him of the situation.

Incident Information: Two young men were at a table in the Mystery area using a computer and making calls on cell phones. Janice Sherman, Circulation Supervisor overheard a few of the calls which were made to Wal-Mart wherein the men said they were representing the Red Cross and wanted to put a lock box at the store so that money could be collected for Hurricane victims. Janice brought concern to me that it sounded like a scam was being done. I overheard one of the phone calls where in one of the men said he was representing the Red Cross and wanted to know if they could collect money for Hurricane victims. One of the men approached me explaining that they were with an organization called "Aim Higher", and that they were at Tim Horton's when they came up with this idea to collect donations for Hurricane victims. He said they contacted the Red Cross who said they'd have to find a place that would be willing to work with them, and get back to the Red Cross who would then work with them. He said he tried all kinds of Wal-Mart's up to corporate offices and they tried Kroger's too. I explained that many companies probably wouldn't trust a phone call for something like this because it didn't sound legitimate. He asked if the Library Branch would allow a lock box. I explained that they couldn't collect at the Library. He said he understood.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called to central court. When I got to central court I saw Suspect (Jevon Speller) challenging Victim (Titus Hilyard) to fight outside. I then escorted the suspect off of library property.

I returned to the victim to obtain his information. After getting his information he explained that the suspect was trying to take money from him. He also said that the suspect kept grabbing an object on his hip and said "I will blast you with this 40 right now". They also said that Jeremy Fisher was on library property. Jeremy Fisher is also very aware that he is not allowed on library property.

The victim called TPD on his own. TPD arrived, and took information then looked around for them. A few minutes later TPD came back and was not able to find the suspect.

Victim left the library without further incident.

Incident Information: On the date and time stated in this report while patrolling the library I heard several people arguing at the computer area. When I approached them they had stopped arguing. Julie walked up and asked if everything was ok to a lady and two men that looked upset. Nobody replied. As we stood off to the side the lady got up and was yelling at the two men on her way out. Telling them that they are disrespectful and rude. I then approached the two men (Mr. Kemp and Mr. Jacobs) and told them that they needed to leave for the day. The suspects left with no further incident. After leaving several patrons and our IT Duane Ackley informed us that the two men had been talking loudly and using foul language. Julie then informed the patrons that we were sorry and that they would be banned from the library. Mr. Ackley filled out a suspect report which I attched.

Incident Information: While on console Bryan (Humanities librarian) called and said that the Suspect (Joe Pollitt) was being very loud and disruptive. She was screaming and accusing people of stealing her phone again.

Suspect came up to the dispatch office to see if we could do a camera review to see who stole her camera. I explained to her that she is probably going to be banned for six months for being so disruptive and harassing people by accusing them of stealing her phone. I did tell her to come back in a few days and I can tell her if we found who might have stolen her phone. I also told her that we can then give her her ban letter.

Suspect apologized, then got up set and said she was going to sue the library. Suspect then left the property without further incident.

Incident Information: On the time and date stated in this report this officer was patrolling outside the Kent branch in the parking lot. I seen Devonte approaching the library expecting to go in. I informed Devonte that his ban is not up and he can't go into the library. Devonte ignored me and went in anyways. I followed Devonte in the library and escorted him back out. Devonte would still not leave library property so I escorted him down the steps and told Devonte to go home. Devonte's brother went to talk to him and Devonte threw a bag of chips in his brothers face. They both were about to engage in fighting. At that moment I went and grabbed Devonte and tried putting handcuffs on him but he kept resisting. I eventually calmed him down and once he did he went home with his brother. Devonte left without further incident. Several moments later Devonte's mother came into the library to see what exactly went on. I explained to her what had happened then she said she has had problems before with him in the past. Devonte has been arrested several times for assault and she was aware of that. Incident Information: On November 12, 2012 Isah B, Hashim (suspect) returned to the library with his father. I asked the suspects father to come to the back room so I could inform him about the incident with the suspect. Lisa (Manager) was also present. I informed the suspects father about what had occurred and because of his son's actions he had been banned for 1 year and if he wanted to appeal the ban, he must call or write a letter to Jeff Sabo. The suspects father stated that he was unaware of the occurrence and that he would speak to the suspect about the incident. On November 13, 2012 at 1900 hours, I received a phone call from the suspects mother while she and the suspect were at the Mott branch inquiring why the ban was for a year and why all libraries were included in the ban letter, when it had happened at Lagrange. I informed the suspects mother that I understand she feels that a 1 year ban is a long time and even if I felt the same, it was not my decision to ban or not ban anyone and that Lagrange is part of the TLCPL, therefor the suspects ban is for all TLCPL. I also told her to call or write to Jeff Sabo is she wanted to appeal the suspects ban. She then thanked me for my help and ended the phone call. At 1915 Ofc. Feher contacted me from the Mott branch to inform me that he had spoke to the suspects father about the incident and given him a list of all branches the suspect could not attend until the ban was complete. Between 1930 and 2000 hours, I received another call from the suspects father asking on the date that the offense happened and if the suspect had left out of the library with the DVD or put it in his bag attempting to leave the library. I informed them once again of the incident and to call Jeff Sabo if him or the suspects mother had anymore questions about this matter. The father of the suspect said he will call and thanked me for all of my assistance.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called by PSO. Johnson to speak with the suspect (Gainor, Joseph). PSO. Johnson stated that the suspect told a patron to get her "Dumb ass out of the way" while he was trying to get past her.

I approached the suspect and asked him to leave for the day for his abusive language. He then said "what for?" I then explained to him that he cant be telling patron to get their dumb ass out of the way. He then began to explain that he has no where else to go and that he just had a seizure. I then explained to him that he will most likely be banned from the library for six months for harassing me. He then said "I Dont give a fuck, come outside with me right now!" I told him that I will not fight him, but I do need to make sure he makes it off of library property ok.

I went outside with the suspect and he started asking me to go across the street with him. I explained that I can not go off of library property. Suspect then continued down the street speaking loudly.

Incident Information: While on patrol I was called to dispatch to respond to a call from children's librarian (Maria). When I got to children's library; Maria directed me to a kid (suspect [Ivory Carter]) she over heard threatening another kid to fight. I approached the suspect and asked him to follow me to the DT room.

While en route to DT we ran into the "Victim" (Anthony Drayton) who then also followed me to DT. Once in DT I gathered all the information and explained to the suspect that he may receive a ban letter from the library for threatening a person to fight. The suspect left the library. The victim was then released to continue using the library.

A few minutes later I was called to DT. Officer Peters had the victim who was now a suspect after hitting a different kid in the back. I then explained that he may now be receiving a ban letter for fighting. Parent was contacted and explained the situation. Parent picked up the child.

A few minutes after that I was patrolling the third floor when I saw suspect (Ivory Carter) sitting on a picnic table on the south civic plaza. When I got to the plaza the suspect was gone. I then asked the kids he was sitting with where he went. They said that they didn't know who I was talking about. I then asked them to leave for the day. I then saw the suspect hiding behind one of the sky lights.

I then walked with the suspect off of library property. A few minutes after that I observed Ivory Carter throwing rocks at cars across the street in the "kwik park" parking lot. Non-Emergency TPD was called. No further information Incident Information: I answered the phone about 2:45 PM. A man told me he wanted to let the library know that a woman and her teenage son were stealing DVDs from the library and attempting to sell them.

When I asked the man's name he said he wishes to remain anonymous. He gave the Woman's name as Tina Tomaszewski. He said he had been visiting her house when her son brought out DVDs for sale which had the library's identification on them. He also said he didn't think it was right to steal library's material. I thanked him for his information. The call lasted about 3 minutes or less.

REPORT BY: Elizabeth Tuohy

AGENCY MANAGER: Lisa Green

Details: On time and date stated Jesse A Wright (Juv suspect) was picking up items he had requested at the check out counter. After items were checked out to the suspect, he then picked up two dvd's from childrens section, one was Tranformers and the other was Supervillains. In the past we've had problems with the suspect not checking out Items correctly. So I continued to watch him, the suspect walked around with movies, stopped and talked to friends, then got on the computer. I noticed suspect get out of his seat and look around, once the suspect made visual contact with me he returned to his seat and then logged off the computer. I then noticed the suspect walk around and gather more items, making it very hard to see how many items the suspect had. After several times walking around the Library the suspect went to express check out but didn't try to check his items out. The suspect walked- arouond once again then went to the check out counter and had his items checked out. At this time I noticed one of the dvd's he had picked up was missing. I asked the suspect where was the Tranformers dvd he picked up, he replied "I put it back on the shelf". I then asked the suspect could he show me where he said "yes". Once at the dvd shelf he could not find it and replied "someone must have picked it up" I asked the suspect again where was the dvd, he then replied "I saw it on the table by the magaizines". No dvd was found on table so I requested for the suspect to come with me so I could get some information and asked Amber (sup) to witness. At this time the suspect's mother (Samantha A Wright) walks into the library and states to the suspect "I told you to come straight home". The suspect then tells his mother "he thinks I stole a dvd" and the suspects mother replies "I've had problems with him before" (I don't know if she was referring to me or the suspect). I then requested that the suspect and his mother come with me to the back room to dicuss what had occurred. Once in the back room I told the suspects mother what had occurred and then asked the suspects mother to witness while I checked him for the dvd, she replied "ok" I asked the suspect to take off his coat and hand it to me I pat the coat down to feel for dvd case. I didn't feel anything that felt like a dvd case. I then placed the coat on the back of the chair and asked for the suspect to put his hands on the back of the chair so I could check him for the dvd, no dvd was found. I then informed the suspect that his behavior was very suspicious and one of my jobs is to recognize this type of behavior in-order to prevent or deter theft of library property. If in anyway you or your mother feel that I have offened you, you may contact my supervisors at the Main Library downtown. I then said my name and badge number and asked if the suspects mother wanted me to write it down. She replied "No". I then informed the suspect that he must not purposely misplace things in the library so he can come back for them at a later time or date. Amber asked the suspect did he understand the suspect replied "yes" Amber again told the suspect why he should not continuously check item in and out. She also advised him to use a red basket to hold his items until he is ready to leave. At that time the staff will take the items he does not want and check out items he does. This is to insure items return to there proper place and ther is no confusion with what needs to be checked out. The suspect agreed and left with out any other incident.

Incident Information: On date and time stated above S/O Gozdowski and this Officer responded to a complaint from Dave Misko from the IT Department, that a patron was in children's viewing animal porn. Mr. Misko informed us that the kid on computer 16 was looking at pet sex.com and videos of horse . Once up in the children's department information was gathered from Lee Reynolds who was logged onto computer 16, along with Mr. Dixon who was next to him watching the videos. Policy was explained and both were told they were not allowed in for 7 days and to check with the Security office before coming back in case the ban is longer due to the nature of the site and the location they were viewing it in. Both suspects left without incident.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was on patrol inside the library making closing preparations when I was approached by a little girl, Brooklyn Martin, who said that her bike had been stolen. I asked her if she had licked up her bike and she told me she had (I later found out that when she talked to a library employee and they asked the same question, she hesitated saying she "thinks" so). I walked outside to the bike racks and there were no bikes fitting the description she gave me which was a "purple mountain bike". I told her that I would have the cameras checked and let her know if I had found anything. Since it was closing time and she was 11 years of age, I waited for her step father to pick her up. I had D/O Marsh review the footage and she said that the camera footage was too bright from the light in front of the library to see the bike rack. There was no further incident.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was finishing up a report when I was notified that two juveniles stole scooters from two other juveniles. I took the two juveniles that were accused of stealing, later identified as Robert Stringer and Mesyiah Hubbard, aside and questioned them about the theft. They confessed that they stole the scooters and rode them around the parking lot and took them to a corner store with them. They left one scooter there and returned the other one to the library where it was recovered by its owner. A I was talking with the accused, the other scooter was recovered by the victims. I called their parent, Victoria Hubbard, and asked if she wanted to come down and pick her children up or have them walk home and she decided to pick them up. I explained to her that Robert is going to be banned for a year according to the eviction guidelines and that Mesyiah will be banned for two years because he was already banned for a year for the same offense on 8-21-2012. She took them home with no further incident.

Incident Information: Jon Johnson was offensive to the staff when they were leaving the Library upon closing. He blocked the back door and their exit path. When Debbie Wolcott explained that the Library was closing he verbally became very agitated and swore in offensive language at the staff. The incident took place during closing and it was a dark area that frightened them.

I was putting the Security Code into the System when I heard some shouting outside. The Staff told me about the incident with Mr. Johnson. He was riding away on his bicycle when they relayed the incident.

Mr. Johnson came to the Library on Monday, December 10. I contacted Security, and Officer Brian Vasquez spoke with him regarding the incident. He was told not to come back on the premises nor any branch of the Library or he would be arrested. Officer Vasquez explained to Mr. Johnson that he would be getting a ban letter from the Library.

He complied and left the Library Grounds. Officer Vasquez stayed at the Library for an additional 15 minutes to be assured he would not return.

Mr. Hill finally moved away after this officer told him to move, yet he was still yelling across the BTS area at his friends. At this time both David and myself told Mr. Hill to leave the area. Mr. Hill refused to do so and told David several times to stop talking to him. At this time I informed Mr. Hill that he had to leave the library and property for the rest of the night and the next day since it was so late. Mr Hill kept asking what he was leaving for and this officer informed him it was because of his mouth and attitude towards the staff members. Mr. Hill stopped in central court once again refusing to leave. Deputy Al Gaston told Mr. Hill that he was to leave the property or go to jail for the night. Mr. Hill left with no further incident. Mr. Hill was recently kicked out of the Metro area for a period of one week because of his attitude, he also has had several run-ins with Brian in Humanities.

Incident Information: On the above date and time I (S.O. Peters) noticed that the suspect (Jay'Shon) had been walking around the audio visual section at Locke Branch numerous times without having anything in his possession. I then noticed that he started walking towards the rear of the library in which he entered the meeting room through the rear door. At that time I knew there were no events scheduled in the meeting room, so I entered the meeting room through the main entrance which was opened without seeing the suspect. I then left the meeting room to tell Locke Branch circulation member (Denise) what I had observed, Denise and I S.O. Peters when back into the meeting room to locate the suspect. We started to open the meeting room closet doors when I observed the suspect who had on a large black coat, laying flat on his stomach with his coat pulled over his head in the dark. The suspect then stood up and claimed that he had a headache and was trying to sleep. He said he entered the meeting room through the main doors instead of the rear doors in which was cracked opened but is normally locked. The suspect then voluntarily opened his coat showing no library materials. I then described to the suspect that he violated the library's code of conduct and told him about the eviction guidelines. No further incident.

The suspect continued to walk away saying only that he was "Done with the library" Suspect walked off library property at the drop box area headed north west toward the line-up area.

Sgt. Cessna and I then returned inside the library to find out what had happened. The staff member explained that the patron had pushed [or bumped] her while they were standing in central court. She explained that it didn't harm her in anyway, but she wouldn't want something like that to happen to a patron.

I told the Staff member that I will get a picture of the suspect as he exited the building and I will obtain his information next time he comes into the library.

Incident Information: Mr. Mosley and Teija came to the Library on Saturday to return stolen material. Teija had hidden the Library material in her backpack, in which her mother discovered. She admitted to her mother that the material was taken from the Heatherdowns Library. I spoke with Mr. Mosley and Teija about the seriousness of taking the material. Mr. Mosley wanted the Police to be contacted, due to Teija's history of theft. I contacted Security regarding the situation, explaining that I will be submitting an Unusual Occurrence form. I explained her history of theft with outside agencies and organizations. To get her attention I had asked if a uniformed police officer to be sent to Heatherdowns. Security was unable to do so because of the lateness in the day. They reaffirmed Mr. Sabo would review the form and make a decision regarding petty theft charges being filed. I explained to Teija and Mr. Mosley that an unusual occurrence form would be written up a ban letter, a ban letter would follow and Mr. Sabo would state in the letter whether charges would be filed. I also explained that once she is banned she is not to return to any Lucas County Library until the ban is served or it would be considered trespassing and she could be arrested.

Incident Information: Mr. Green is a somewhat regular at the Reynolds Corners Branch Library. He has a large stack of books and magazines he collects around him at a table every time he visits. They are the same materials he uses each time he's here, yet he badgers staff when materials aren't kept on a shelf waiting for him or are checked out. He has an outstanding, high fine so he cannot check anything out himself. He is also annoyed if another patron uses "his" books or magazines. One staff member even observed him accosting another patron who was checking out one of "his" new books. He is very nasty when he comes in and "his" materials have been re shelved: which takes on average, due the amount of materials he amasses on the table, 45 minutes each time. He often "targets" a staff member to be particularly nasty to and corners other staff members to talk about that person to. Staff members and branch manager have discussed this inappropriate behavior with him but anytime it is mentioned, he wages personal abusive behavior directed at that person. His instability and outright hostility are disturbing to staff members and patrons alike. As mentioned, he is occasionally verbally abusive, always aggressive to staff, interrupts other patrons and gets hostile when we cannot procure "his" books for him if they are checked out - accusing us of not waiting on him.

Incident Information: On the above date and time, this officer was notified by the circulation clerk, Denise A. Noel, that a woman, later identified as Olivia Rice, put some DVD's from her bag onto the shelf and put others into her bag. I then approached Mrs. Rice and her husband Brandon Jay Rice asking first to search Mr. Rice's bag, he did not have any merchandise in his bag. When I went to ask Mrs. Rice to check her bag, she was almost off of the property. I called for her to come back and she complied. I then checked her bag and found the above named merchandise, which was not checked out to her. She stated that she thought she had checked them out at the check-out counter, which she never went to in the first place. I then called dispatch to check and see if she had any priors in our system, and it came back negative. She left with no further incident.

Incident Information: On 12/28/2012 at approximately 1545 hours, while on patrol inside of the library, near the magazine rack, I observed a male sleeping in a chair. I tapped the male subject on the shoulder to wake him. When the subject woke up he advised that he needed a squad for a back injury. I asked the subject for his name and other information. Male subject was identified as William M. Schaller. I called the Toledo Non-Emergency number and advised them of the situation. I then notified dispatch of the situation. William advised that he had fallen on the ice on his way home and had stopped at the library to rest after the fall. The fall did not take place on the T-LCPL property. Toledo Fire and EMS arrived on the scene. William Schaller was transported to Toledo Hospital.

As William got up from the chair in the magazine area I observed what appeared to be a stain on the inside of his right pants leg. William appeared to have released his bowels at some point. It did not appear that William had released his bowels while he was sitting in the chair.
