'Tequila Mockingbird: Cocktails With A Literary Twist'

This is perfect for anyone who loves adult beverages and literature. Tired of the traditional rum and Coke? Ready to diversify the usual cocktail mix? This book features over 60 drink recipes paired with commentary on some of the most renowned novels. $8 at Barnes & Noble, 4940 Monroe St.

Emoji Chia Pet

You can purchase virtually any expression you want. No need to use an emoji on social media or through text when someone could have it with them at all times. $13 - $17 at Walmart or Target.

Fisticup

This distinct coffee mug will help the caffeine addicts keep a tight grip on their morning cups of coffee. It'll be particularly handy if they find themselves in the middle of a coffee-based brawl. The handle is made of brass knuckles and the cup is curved to ensure a comfortable grip. $16.95 at mcphee.com.

White Elephant Figurine

What better gift for a white elephant gift exchange than a literal white elephant? Simply feign ignorance, act like you didn't understand the concept, and hope someone would enjoy this white ceramic elephant as a decorative piece. It's sure to frustrate some and tickle others. $18 at Walmart.com.

Blue Q Wash Away Your Sins Hand Soap

This wash away your sins hand soap is perfect for any germophobe, church-goer, or anybody with conduct they hope to atone for. In addition to bacteria, this soap kills sins on contact. It's perfect for liars, cheaters and alleged wrong-doers. $9 at the Art Supply Depo, 29 S. St. Clair St., Toledo.

'A Christmas Story' Leg Lamp Night Light

What better way to commemorate the holidays than with a replica of an item from a classic Christmas film? This is for those people who watch A Christmas Story every single year. $10 at Kohls or at Kohls.com.
