GROUND FOR APPLICATION: Disparate Sentence. The applicant is a deserving candidate for clemency. He takes responsibility for his actions, displays remorse, and has positive institutional adjustment. There is strong public support for his release from prison. If released, the applicant presents no risk to society. Please refer to the submitted clemency application packet for additional information in support of the grounds for application.

CONCLUSION:

Upon careful evaluation of the application and all supporting documentation, it was noted by the Board that the offense is serious in nature and the applicant's sentence is not disparate. In the judgment of the Parole Board, neither the grounds set forth in the application nor facts disclosed by way of our inquiry warrant the exercise of the clemency power at this time.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Parole Board, by a majority vote, recommends to John R. Kasich, Governor of the State of Ohio, that clemency be denied in the case of Thomas Noe, A589-407.
