Enjoying great food while supporting a great cause—that’s what Restaurant Week Toledo is all about! Now in its ninth year, Restaurant Week Toledo (RWT) celebrates our wonderful restaurant scene here in Northwest Ohio. With over 35 restaurants to choose from, you are sure to find something that suits your palate. Better yet, each time you dine out you’re supporting our local youth.

“By exploring our terrific local food scene during Restaurant Week Toledo, you’re giving back to an organization that is dedicated to developing strong leaders in our community,” says Anna Toney, Executive Director at Leadership Toledo. “Specifically, you’re supporting programs that are designed to develop and empower aspiring leaders.”

With a vibrant history of enriching our community over the past 40 years, Leadership Toledo launched its youth programs in 1997. As a result, high school students can improve their schools and communities while developing their personal leadership skills. The goal is to keep these programs tuition free for students. That’s where Restaurant Week Toledo comes in.

“We rely on the community’s support to help eliminate the barrier of cost to participate. Every time you dine out at a participating restaurant during Restaurant Week, you help us to fulfill our vision and mission by making an investment in our community’s young leaders,” says Toney.

Cities all over the country have restaurant weeks, but RWT is one of the few that gives back to a local organization. For years this event has brought together locally owned restaurants, program partners and community volunteers to sustain and grow Leadership Toledo’s nationally recognized youth programming.

“Leadership Toledo acts as a catalyst to cultivate leaders of all ages and cultures by connecting them to people, knowledge, experiences and opportunities,” says Toney. “In order to be a leader in your community, no matter your age, you need to truly know your community and the importance of being engaged. Our programs help make that happen.”

So, how does it work? Simply dine at one of the participating restaurants during RWT, and a portion of proceeds will be donated to Leadership Toledo. RWT menus are prix-fixe so you can enjoy fantastic food at a great price. However, ordering from a participating restaurant’s traditional menu will also support Leadership Toledo’s youth programs.

Leadership Toledo exists to cultivate a community of leaders dedicated to serving with authenticity and purpose. Now you can support this initiative by visiting as many participating restaurants as possible and enjoying great meals. It’s time to dine so our local youth can shine! Ye Olde Duryt Bird is proud to support Leadership Toledo and to be a part of Restaurant Week 2019. * Our suggested healthy choices.
Leadership Toledo’s programs offer participants the opportunity to become more confident leaders, connect with the community on a deeper level, grow stronger in self-awareness, and serve in ways that are meaningful to the individual and their community.

Signature Adult Program

Leadership Toledo balances service and volunteerism with personal growth. Through this program, participants can develop a deeper understanding of our region, its strengths, and many of the issues it faces. At the same time, they’ll have the opportunity to explore their own personal strengths and talents, and use them to improve and enrich our community.

Leadership Toledo provides adults a nine-month experience with the opportunity to lead, connect, grow and serve. Class members from diverse backgrounds come together each month for intensive sessions that focus attention on the needs of our community and serving those needs. Each session includes discussion, education, and participation as well as the chance to develop professional connections. In addition to the regular sessions, participants work in small project teams that bring their collective knowledge and energy to a deserving not-for-profit group.

Applications for the 2019-2020 class will be available beginning in March. Visit www.leadershiptoledo.org for more information.

Youth Leadership Toledo

Each year, Youth Leadership Toledo prepares 50 area high school sophomores to make an impact in their schools and communities. Youth Leadership Toledo immerses participants in a range of issues, helping them realize their leadership potential and grow their awareness of their own personal values and most authentic selves.

Students meet at different area sites in and around the Toledo area that are relevant to the session topics. Youth Leadership Toledo tours the region, visits agencies and institutions important to our community, meet people who work with issues crucial to our future, and participate in activities and exercises that raise awareness and build skills.
Students in Action
Students in Action, a program of The Jefferson Awards Foundation, is facilitated locally by Leadership Toledo and develops high school students into community leaders. Currently active in communities across the U.S., the program encourages teenagers to positively impact their schools, communities and world through community service that is student-led. As an extension of the Jefferson Awards, participants take part in a nation-wide training and development in leadership and community engagement. The Jefferson Awards are regarded as one of the nation’s highest honors for community service and volunteerism.

Youth in Philanthropy Encouraging Excellence
Youth in Philanthropy Encouraging Excellence – or YiPEE, for short – is a program for high school juniors and seniors wishing to learn more about community needs and the elements of thoughtful giving. In partnership with Toledo Community Foundation, the program’s goal is to establish a foundation for a lifelong commitment to leadership, volunteerism, and philanthropy.

Within this unique program, students identify key problems facing youth, solicit and review grant applications from local youth-serving organizations, and raise and allocate funds to deserving area non-profits to address those needs.

For more information on how to get involved with our programs visit leadershiptoledo.org or call 419.241.7371
