Incident Report

Reported by: Schmaltz, David E-3220

Date: 06/03/12 07:54:22

While traveling eastbound on US 20, Douglas called 911 after seeing what he believed was a deceased person "lying against a tombstone". After giving a detailed description of landmarks as to where he observed the subject, Communications Officer A. Parker attempted to refer Douglas to Perrysburg Township Police for follow-up. Township Dispatch advised they had no cemeteries along US 20. After I spoke with Douglas, it was clear he was referring to a location east of Lime City Road. I contacted Perrysburg Township Dispatch and encouraged them to speak with Douglas regarding what he saw.

I stopped a vehicle because the driver was weaving as she traveled SB on SR 25, at times leaving her lane. I made contact with Ms. Metcalf who had two other adult female passengers along with a juvenile female seated in the rear behind the driver. The child appeared to be under three yoa, and Ms. Metcalf stated she was three yoa. The child was not in a safety seat nor was she secured with a seat belt. I asked why the child was not secured in a safety seat and Ms. Metcalf stated she was driving her daughter and child back to BG. No reason was given as to why the child was not secured. Ms. Metcalf stated she was weaving because of suspension problems.
