Braves' bats thump Detroit in 12-3 win

Santana pitches 3 innings, yields 2 runs

LAKELAND, Fla. — Ervin Santana allowed two runs in three innings as the Atlanta Braves topped the Detroit Tigers 12-3 Tuesday.

Santana gave up four hits and struck out one in his second start since being signed by the Braves to a one-year, $11 million deal on March 12.

Santana was 9-10 with a 3.24 ERA for the Kansas City Royals last his rough outing.

Santana has pitched five innings this spring and has a 5.40 ERA.

"I feel good," he said. "I am just trying to keep the ball down. I know I still have to work on some sixth. stuff. Except for a couple of runs, it lowed four hits.

"He was just out of whack today," Ausmus said.

Krol was scheduled to pitch on Monday but the game was rained out. He pitched in the batting cage and his outing was his first back to back games this spring.

GOING, GOING, WAY GONE: Heyward's wind-blown homer against Porcello cleared the tall right field scoreboard before clanging off a pickup truck. Tigers right fielder Torii Hunter simply looked up as it soared over his grass and tossed them into the air over nine major league seasons, all 7.56. He walked a batter and al- as he watched it sail out of sight.

Rangers' Ross shuts down Indians for 7 innings in win

Ross gave a strong audition in his ing curveball. It kind of backed up bid to join the Texas rotation, pitching seven shutout innings that led the Rangers over the Cleveland Indians 5-0 Tuesday.

Ross allowed four hits, striking out eight, and walking three.

The Rangers did not commit to Ross after the game but his performance left little doubt.

"He was pitching out there again today," Texas manager Ron Washington said. "He still out there. He's done nothing to change that. He's been pitching his butt off. He's been doing everything. We have to make a decision soon. Robbie's done his job against a pretty good lineup. You can't ask for much more.'

Michael Choice hit his fourth home run, connecting off Indians starter Josh Tomlin.

Tomlin is competing with Carlos Carrasco for the fourth spot in the rotation. Danny Salazar will be the fifth starter.

Tomlin allowed two runs in the first but put together four scoreless innings until Choice hit the home on me.' Indians manager, Terry Francona, also faces a tough decision.

Carrasco pitched well on Monday. STARTING TIMES: Tomlin missed most of last season with elbow reconstructive surgery. He has a 2.57 ERA in his prior four spring appearances.

Tomlin pitched 61/3 innings and gave up four runs on seven hits and two walks. He struck out five.

TRAINER'S ROOM: Jason Giambi will be placed on the disabled list on Sunday. He suffered a fractured rib on his right side after being hit by a pitch from Edwin Jackson of the Cubs on March 7.

SANTANA AT THIRD: Lonnie Chisenhall was competing with Carlos Santana at third base. The spring-long experiment to move Santana to third was a success. The Indians told Chisenhall that he made the team on Sunday. Santana will play some third this sea-
