Shinola wristwatch

There aren't a whole lot of watches made in the United States these days, but Shinola is doing just that in Detroit. They might not have the pedigree of high-end Swiss brands, but they've cultivated a unique American story and have classic retro-cool styling. This Runwell Sport clocks in at $675. You can find the whole Shinola line at Howard Jaffe Jewelers.

Leather travel bag

Traveling was once a luxurious affair. Now, we're crammed into jetliners like we're being stuffed into a Pringles can. Bring a little of that glamour back with a leather cabin bag from Coach. Comes in brown or black. $898.

Sports car

There are two real, honest American supercars. The Chevrolet Corvette is the classic example. The Dodge Viper is less refined, less restrained, less common, and more expensive. Where do I sign? If you really want to go big — and fast — a 640-horsepower V-10 rocketship is hard to beat. Just make sure you can afford the insurance premiums. Yark Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram. $84,995.

Diamonds

The old tagline says diamonds are a girl's best friend, and who wouldn't want to add to their social circle? Maybe you're getting ready to get hitched, or maybe you want to surprise her with a big upgrade to celebrate a milestone anniversary. Broer-Freeman Jewelers always has an ample supply of loose diamonds. Right now the crème de la crème of its inventory is a 3-carat marquise-cut diamond that retails for $30,000. (P.S.: Guys, an engagement ring doesn't get you off the hook. You still gotta buy a Christmas gift.)

European vacation

You can give things or you can give experiences. If the latter is appealing, how about a trip through Europe on a luxury riverboat? Viking River Cruises offers an eight-day trip down the River Rhine starting at $1,856. Book through Central Travel.

Prices and availability subject to change.

A little luxury can go a long way. Maybe you've been scrimping and saving all year to splurge on a major gift, or maybe you're just light-your-cigars-with-$100 bills wealthy. Either way, here's an assortment of gift ideas for those who like to live large.

Personal watercraft

With easy access to Lake Erie and the Maumee River, a personal watercraft is a great summer toy for folks in northwest Ohio or southeast Michigan. Honda East in Maumee has this top-end 2015 Sea-Doo GTX Limited iS 260 for $17,299.

Vintage arcade game

Remember Frogger and Pac-Man? You can help your arcade-rat friends revive those old games with a reconditioned machine from Champion Amusements. The Toledo company takes vintage machines and loads them up with 60 classic games. Put one in their game room for $1,995.

Fancy shaving gear

For the man who has everything — except, perhaps, a beard — how about a badger hair shaving brush. This one from Macy's is set in silver. $250. You can add a chromed brush and razor stand for another $150.

Scotch

There's top shelf, and then there's Johnnie Walker Blue Label. Often thought of as the premier Scotch whisky, Blue Label is known for its smoothness, its silk-lined presentation box, and especially its price. Joseph's Beverage Center has it for $242 a bottle.

Burberry trench coat

A couple things to agree on: We all need a coat. None of us needs a coat that costs $1,795. But when it comes to giving gifts, it's OK to throw need out the window in favor of indulgence. This classic belted Burberry trench, lined in the famous camel, ivory, red, and black colors, does the trick. Burberry.com
